AS in late Editions, this contains a List of the past and present House of Commons.

For this Edition, that portion of the Work relating to the Proceedings at Elections, with "the Representation of the People Act, 1867," and the decisions of the Court of Common Pleas on Registration Appeals, has been carefully revised, and so amplified, as to render it an efficient and useful guide in these matters.

The unsuccessful Candidates are invariably marked in Italics.

Respecting the List of Changes in all the great Offices, the Rule laid down and pursued in this Book, is, to give, first, the Person or Persons who held this or that Department at the close of the last Century, and then the Changes, or Alterations, in the Administration, which have been since made, with their Dates.

No pains have been spared to render this Work as accurate as possible; but Notice of any Errors will at all times be thankfully received by the Publisher, together with any hints for improvement.

[The late Parliament was dissolved on November 11, 1868; the Writs were returnable on the 10*th December following ; and the new Parliament met, for the despatch of business, December* 12*th*, 1868, for the First Session of the Nineteenth Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.]

N.B.—By Act 5 and 6 William IV., cap. 36, the time of taking the Poll in Boroughs, at all contested Elections in England and Wales, is limited to One Day. By Act 31 & 32 Victoriæ, cap. 58, § 16, the time is prolonged for certain Contributory Boroughs in Wales.

By Act 5 and 6 William IV., cap. 78, § 5, the time of taking the Poll at all Borough Elections, in Scotland, is limited to One Day.

By Act 10 and 11 Victoriæ, cap. 81, the time of taking the Poll at all Borough Elections, in Ireland, is limited to One Day.

By Act 16 and 17 Victoriæ, cap. 15, the time of taking the Poll at all County Elections, in England and Wales, is limited to One Day.

By Act 16 and 17 Victoriæ, cap. 28, the time of taking the Poll at all County Elections in Scotland (except Orkney and Shetland), is limited to One Day.

By Act 16 and 17 Victoriæ, cap. 68, § 3, all Elections in England to take place within Six Days after receiving the Writ, giving Three Days' clear Notice.

By Act 6 and 7 Victoriæ, cap. 18, s. 36, Electors resident in one part of the County, and claiming to vote for property in another, may vote near their place of residence, on making a claim at the Revision Court, according to directions, p. 147.

From an attentive consideration of the above statement, which is drawn up with as much accuracy as possible, from the Rolls and Journals of both Houses of Parliament, the following facts may be deduced:—

In the first place it appears, that, since the year 1509 (when it is generally supposed that the duration of Parliaments was extended beyond one year), only four Parliaments have existed beyond seven years, and that only ten more have had a sexennial duration.

In the second place, it is sufficiently evident, that, of the rest, only nine Parliaments have lasted above five years, only six Parliaments above four, and three above three years.

Thirdly, of the remaining number, only eleven existed above two years, and no less than thirty-seven for a shorter period.

Lastly, it is certain, that, one Parliament with another, the duration of each, since the reign of Henry VII., does not exceed the space of two years and about nine months, even including the long Parliament in the reign of King Charles I., and the still longer one which his son retained in existence for the enormous period of about seventeen years.

OFFICERS OF STATE.

THE LORD STEWARD'S DEPARTMENT.

The estate of the Queen's household is entirely committed to the Lord Steward, to be ruled and governed by his discretion; and all his commands in court are to be obeyed; his authority reaches over all the officers and servants of the Queen's house, except those of the Queen's chamber, stable, and chapel. Under the Lord Steward, in the compting-house, are the treasurer of the household, comptroller, cofferer, master of the household, clerks of the green cloth, &c. It is called the compting-house, because all the accounts and expenses of the Queen's household are daily taken and kept in it.

THE SECRETARIES OF STATE.

[Until the reign of Henry VIII. there was only one Secretary of State; and until the reign of Elizabeth, the Secretaries were never of the Privy Council. From that time to the present, there have been two Secretaries of State, and sometimes three; and thus a council has seldom been held without the presence of at least one of them. From the death of Queen Anne to the Rebellion of 1745, there was a third Secretary for Scotland; and from 1768, to the loss of America, in 1782, there was one for the Colonies. The departments of the two Secretaries were, previous to 1782, divided into Northern and Southern, but are now divided into one foreign, the other domestic. With the Home Secretary, all grants, pardons, and regulations in civil matters of every kind, are made out and executed. To the Foreign Secretary belong all despatches to and from other courts, and all business appertaining to the same. They have the custody of the privy signet, because the Queen's private letters are sealed with it. There are four Clerks of the Signet, who make out grants, patents, &c. which have the sign manual, to which the Signet being added, it is a warrant to the Privy Seal, as the Privy Seal is a warrant to the Great Seal. The Paper Office belongs to the Secretaries of State, where all papers, letters, memorials, negotiations, &c., are deposited and preserved.]

THE LORD CHANCELLOR

Keeps the Great Seal, not to judge according to the common law, as other courts do, but to dispense with such parts as seem in some cases to oppress the subject; and to judge according to equity, conscience, and reason. Wherefore he is said to have two powers; one absolute, the other ordinary; the meaning of which is, he must observe the form of proceeding in other courts; yet, in his absolute power, he is not limited by the written law, but in conscience and equity. He may issue writs of habeas corpus at all times. He has power to collate to all ecclesiastical benefices in the Queen's gift, rated under 20l. per annum in the Queen's Books. His oath:—To do justice to all persons, poor and rich; the Queen truly to counsel, and to keep the Queen's counsel, and not to suffer the rights of the Crown to be any ways diminished.

[The Lord Chancellor and Lord Keeper are the same in power and precedence. Both are appointed by the Queen's delivery of the Great Seal; they differ only in this:—the Lord Chancellor has also letters patent, the Lord Keeper has none.]

But in case any of the offences aforesaid be committed in any voyage beyond the narrow seas, then execution shall be done by order of the commander-in-chief." Note.—The Bishops of London, Durham, and Winchester, rank next to the Archbishops; the rest according to priority of consecration. An order in council appeared in the London Gazette of October 1838, declaring that the Sees of St. Asaph and Bangor should be united on the next vacancy in either; and that, on that event occurring, the bishopric of Manchester should be immediately created within the archiepiscopal See of York, and that the county of Lancaster should form the See of the new bishop, being for that purpose detached from the diocese of Chester. The union of the Sees of St. Asaph and Bangor, however, was negatived by a resolution of the House of Lords in the session of 1846.

[By an order in council, Sept. 1, 1847, the See of Manchester has been created, and its limits defined.]

PROCEEDINGS BEFORE ELECTION.

Dissolution of Parliament.

Parliament may be dissolved at any time by the will of the Crown. The same Parliament cannot sit for more than seven years, computed from the day named for it to meet in the proclamation by which it was called. 1st George I., c. 2.

New Parliament.

A NEW Parliament is summoned by Royal proclamation, wherein the day is named for its meeting, which may be any time "not less than thirty-five days after the date of such proclamation." 15th & 16th Victoriæ, cap. 23.

Issuing Writs for a General Election.

Upon the summoning of a new Parliament, a warrant or order, from the Queen in Council, is issued to the Lords High Chancellors of Great Britain and Ireland, commanding them to issue writs for the Election of Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses to Parliament. These writs are issued from the Petty Bag Office (12th & 13th Victoriæ, cap. 109), and are returnable to the Crown Office within thirty-five days of the date of the proclamation. The form of the writ is that anciently used, being made conformable to the provisions of the Reform Act, according to section 77, and to the 16th & 17th Victoriæ, cap. 68, s. 1.

Issuing Writs for Vacancies during a Parliament.

After the assembling of the new Parliament, and during its continuance, the House of Commons alone has the power of ordering writs to be issued. These writs are issued by the Clerk of the Crown, upon receipt of a warrant from the Speaker. Occasional vacancies arise from the elevation of a Member to the Peerage, or the acceptance of an office of profit under the Crown, the death or bankruptcy of a Member, or the previous election being declared void by a Committee of the House.

During the session the Speaker issues his warrant, upon a motion agreed to by the House.

Upon a Member becoming bankrupt, and if within twelve months the commission be not superseded, or the debts satisfied, the Commissioners in Bankruptcy are required to certify the same to the Speaker, and the election of such Member is thereupon to be declared void. 52nd George III., cap. 144.

During a recess, by the Act 24th George III., cap. 26, s. 2, the Speaker is to issue his warrant for making out writs for electing members to serve in the room of those who shall die, or become Peers of Great Britain, upon receiving notice, by certificate, under the hands of two members, of the death of such member, or that a writ of summons has been issued under the Great Seal. The Speaker, upon receiving such certificate, shall forthwith cause notice to be inserted in the Gazette, and shall not issue his warrant until fourteen [Six days 26th Vic. cap. 20, p. 143] days after such insertion. To guard against inconvenience occurring by the death or absence of the Speaker, it is provided, that every Speaker of the House of Commons shall, within a convenient time after having been in office, at the beginning of every Parliament, by a written instrument under his hand and seal, nominate and appoint a certain number of persons, not more than seven, nor less than three members of the House, authorising them, or any one of them, to execute the powers given to the Speaker for issuing such warrants. No person so appointed shall be authorised to act, unless there be no Speaker of the House, or such Speaker be absent, nor any longer than such persons shall be members of the House.

The provisions of the above Act have been extended, by the following statute, to vacancies occurring during recess, by reason of the acceptance, by Members, of offices of profit from the Crown.

Act 21st & 22nd Victoriæ, cap. 110. After reciting the 24th George III., it is enacted that, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Speaker of the House of Commons for the time being, during any recess of the House as aforesaid, to issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for electing a Member of the House in the room of any Member who has, since such adjournment or prorogation, accepted any office whereby he has, either by the express provision of any Act of Parliament or by any previous determination of the House of Commons, vacated his seat in the House of Commons, so soon as he shall have been gazetted thereto in any of the Queen's Gazettes, and a notice thereof, together with a copy of the Gazette, shall have been sent to the Speaker by a certificate under the hands of two Members of the House of Commons, according to the form in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or to the like effect.

Provided always, that any Member of the House of Commons accepting any such office as aforesaid shall forthwith notify his acceptance thereof to the Speaker, either by writing under the hand of such Member or by his countersigning the said certificate relating to such acceptance, and the Speaker shall not issue his Warrant in pursuance of this Act without having received such notification, and until fourteen [Six days 26th Vic. cap. 20, p. 143] days after he shall have caused notice of his having received such certificate and notification to be inserted in the London Gazette.

Provided always, that in any case in which it shall appear to the Speaker to be doubtful whether the acceptance of any office which has been certified to him as aforesaid has the effect of vacating the seat of the person so appointed, it shall be lawful for the said Speaker, instead of issuing his Warrant in pursuance of this Act, to reserve such question for the decision of the House.

Provided always, that this Act shall not in any way apply to the acceptance of any of the following offices; that is to say, the office of Steward or Bailiff of Her Majesty's three Chiltern Hundreds of Stoke, Desborough, and Bonenham, or of the Manor of East Hendred, or of the Manor of Northstead, or of the Manor of Hempholme, or of Escheator of Munster.

In the writs issued in pursuance of a warrant from the Speaker, the return of the late Member, and the cause of the vacancy, are both set forth.

The Act 26th Victoriæ, cap. 20 [8th June, 1863], further limits and defines the time for proceeding to Election during the recess.

" By the Act of the 24th of George III., cap. 26, the Act of the 52nd George III. cap. 144, and the Act of the 21st & 22nd of Victoriæ, cap. 110, the Speaker is enabled to issue his warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out new writs for the election of Members of the House of Commons in certain cases during the recess of Parliament, after giving Fourteen days notice in the London Gazette. And whereas it is expedient to limit the time of Notice required by the said Acts, be it enacted, &c.

" That the Act of the 24th George III., cap. 26, the Act of the 54th George III., cap. 144, and the Act of the 21st & 22nd Victoriæ, cap. 110, shall be so construed as if SIX and not Fourteen days notice had been originally in the said Acts, and this Act and the said Acts shall be construed and read together."

Writs, to whom directed.

The writs for the return of knights of the shire are directed to the Sheriffs of the several counties; for the return of citizens and burgesses, to the respective returning officers of the several cities, boroughs, and places returning Members; and for the return of Members to serve in Parliament for the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, to their Vice-Chancellors. 16th & 17th Victoriæ, cap. 68, s. 1.

Transmission of Writs.

The Sheriffs of counties, and other returning officers of cities, boroughs, and places returning Members to Parliament, to whom writs are usually directed, are required from time to time, as changes may take place, to furnish the Postmaster-General with an account of the city, town, or place where they hold their respective offices. A list thereof is thereupon made out, and hung up at the General Post Office. Where the Sheriffs, or other officer to whom a writ is to be sent, holds his office within the cities of London or Westminster, or the borough of Southwark, or within five miles thereof, he is required to forward the particulars of the situation of his office to the messenger of the Great Seal, instead of to the Postmaster-General.

The writs to the Sheriffs and returning officers, having their offices within five miles of London, are delivered thereat by the messenger of the Great Seal. All other writs are taken to the General Post Office, and dispatched by the next post or mail to their several destinations. On delivery, a receipt is taken from the returning officer, which is transmitted to, and registered in London. 53rd George III., cap. 89.

Endorsement of Receipt.

Upon receipt, the returning officer is to endorse upon the back of the writ the day he received the same. 7th & 8th William III., cap. 25.

Proclamation of the Writ.

In Counties, proclamation of a special county court to be holden, is to be made within two days after the receipt of the writ, at the place where the election is to be held, 25th George III., cap. 84; and such county court is to be holden "not later, from the day of making such proclamation, than the TWELFTH day, nor sooner than the FOURTH." 16th & 17th Victoriæ, cap. 68, s. 2.

In Cities, Boroughs, and Universities, in England and Wales, proclamation of the writ must, from the following requirements, be made, at the latest, on the day following its receipt.

Act 16th and 17th Victoriæ, cap. 68, s. 3, enacts, "that in every city or town being a county of itself, and in every borough, town corporate, port, or place, returning or contributing to return a member or members to serve in Parliament in England and Wales, the officer to whom the duty of giving notice for the election of such member or members belongs shall proceed to election within SIX days after the receipt of the writ or precept, giving THREE clear days notice at least of the day of election, exclusive of the day of proclamation and the day of election."

Form of Notice of Election.

"The Corrupt Practices Prevention Act, 1854," (continued by the 25th & 26th Vict. c. 109), enacts that "Every returning officer to whom the execution of any writ or precept for electing any member or members to serve in Parliament may appertain or belong shall, in lieu of the proclamation or notice of election heretofore used, publish or cause to be published such proclamation or notice of election as is mentioned in Schedule B. to this Act."—i. e.

Freedom of Election and Removal of Military.

The Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, or other officer making out any writ for the election of a Member or Members of Parliament, is required, with all convenient speed after making out the said writ, to give notice thereof to the Secretary of War, who shall thereupon give the necessary orders that on the day of nomination and of taking the poll, no soldier —within two miles of any city, borough, town, or place where such nomination or election shall be declared or poll taken—shall be allowed to go out of the barracks or quarters in which he is stationed. 10th & 11th Victoriæ, cap. 21.

The following resolutions are entered on the Journals of the House:—

"It is a high infringement of the liberties and privileges of the Commons, for any Lord of Parliament, or any Lord-Lieutenant of any county, to concern themselves in the election of members of Parliament."

"It is highly criminal in any minister or servant under the Crown, directly or indirectly, to use the powers of office in the election of representatives to serve in Parliament." Resolution 17; Journal 507.

The printed book or books, prepared by the Clerk of the Peace and Town Clerk respectively, are, on or before the last day of December in the then current year, to be signed and delivered to the Sheriff of the County, or, in Cities and Boroughs, to the Returning Officer, to be safely kept by him and his successors in office; and "the said printed book or books, so signed as aforesaid by the Clerk of the Peace or Town Clerk respectively, and given into the custody of the Sheriff of the County, or the Returning Officer of any City or Borough, shall be the register of persons entitled to vote at any election of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament, which shall take place between the last day of November, in the year wherein such register shall have been made, and the first day of December in the succeeding year." 6th Victoriæ, cap. 18, ss. 48 and 49.

Any alteration or correction of the register required to be made by any order of the Court of Common Pleas in Registration Appeal Cases, is to be made by the sheriff or returning officer in the register in his custody, and he is to sign his name against every such alteration or correction. 6 Vic. cap. 18, s. 67.

PROCEEDINGS AT ELECTION.

Nomination and Place of Election.

The day appointed by the returning officer for proceeding to the election is termed the "DAY OF NOMINATION." The place where the nomination or election is required to be held, is as follows:—

In Counties, the special county court is to be held at "the most public and usual place of election, where the same has most usually been for forty years last past." 7th & 8th William III., cap. 25, s. 3. The place of election for counties divided, is appointed for each division by the Reform Act, 2nd William IV., cap. 45; and the Boundary Act, 2nd William IV., cap. 64.

In Cities and Boroughs, the usual place is at the Guildhall, Townhall, Market-place, or Cross. A few boroughs have special Acts, regulating the place of election. No election is to be holden in any church, chapel, or place of public worship. 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 68.

The proceedings of the nomination are commenced by the returning officer causing proclamation for silence to be made, reading the writ, and taking the oath prescribed by 2nd George II., cap. 24, s. 3. The electors are then called upon to nominate fit and proper persons to be returned, to represent them in Parliament.

The several candidates having been nominated, and having addressed the electors, the returning officer proceeds to determine the election. If only so many candidates are nominated as there are Members to be returned, the return is made forthwith; if more are nominated, the election is determined "by the view," or "by the poll."

Election by the View.

The determination is either by voices or show of hands, or collecting the friends of the respective candidates into separate bodies, or in such other mode as has been customary upon such occasions; the almost universal way now, however, is by the "show of hands," upon which the returning officer declares the names of the candidates upon whom the choice of the majority of the persons present has fallen; and, if a poll is not legally demanded, he forthwith makes a return of the persons so chosen.

Election by the Poll.

If the election is not determined by the view, but a poll demanded, it is taken according to the provisions of the Reform Act and other statutes, and the election properly commences therewith. Notice is forthwith given of the times and places, when and where, the poll will be taken.

In Counties, the poll is to be taken on the next day but two after the nomination, unless such day be a Sunday, and then on the Monday following. 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 62.

In Boroughs, the polling is to "commence at eight of the clock in the forenoon of the day next following the day fixed for the election." 5th & 6th William IV., cap. 36, s. 2.

Polling Places, Booths, and Deputy Returning Officers.

COUNTIES.—2nd William IV., cap. 45 and cap. 64. Counties in England and Wales, and their respective ridings, are divided into convenient districts for polling, and in each district a convenient place appointed for taking the poll.

Additional polling places may be appointed, under the provisions of the 6th and 7th William IV., cap. 102, s. 112, and 16th and 17th Victoriæ, cap. 68, ss. 7 & 8.

Act 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 64. At every contested election for any county, the sheriff, under-sheriff, or sheriff's deputy, if required by or on behalf of any candidate on the day fixed for the election, or if it shall appear to him expedient, to cause to be erected a reasonable number of booths for taking the poll at the principal place of election, and also at each of the polling places, and cause to be affixed, on the most conspicuous part of each of such booths, the names of the several parishes, townships, and places for which such booth is allotted; and no person to be admitted to vote in respect of any property situate in any parish, &c., except at the booth so allotted; and if no booth shall be so allotted, then at any of the booths for the same district: but in case any parish, &c. shall not be included in any of the districts to be appointed by the Boundary Act, the votes in respect of property situate in any parish, &c. so omitted, to be taken at the principal place of election for the county.

Note.—By Act 6 and 7 Victoriæ, cap. 18, voters resident out of the county or division, or resident in one part of the county and claiming to vote for property in another, may now vote at the most convenient polling place to them, or near to their place of residence, by previously claiming, before the Revising Barrister, according to the form No. 7 or 8, in the Schedule A, of registration forms.

As many polling booths are to be provided at each polling place as will allow one for every 450 electors, who may lawfully vote at such polling place. 6th and 7th William IV., cap. 102, s. 3.

CITIES AND BOROUGHS.—Act 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 68. At every contested election for any city or borough in England, except the borough of Monmouth, the returning officer, if required by or on the behalf of any candidate, on the day fixed for the election, or if it shall appear to him expedient to cause to be erected different polling-booths for different parishes, districts, or parts of such city or borough which may be situated either in one place or in several places, and to be so divided and allotted into compartments as to the returning officer shall seem most convenient, so that no greater number than six hundred be required to poll at any one compartment; and the returning officer to appoint a clerk to take the poll at each compartment, and cause to be affixed on the most conspicuous part of each of the said booths, the names of the several parishes, &c. for which such booth is allotted; and no person to be admitted to vote except at the booth allotted for the parish, &c. wherein the property may be situate in respect of which he claims to vote, or wherein his place of abode, as described in the register, may be; but in case no booth be provided for any particular parish, &c. the votes of persons voting in respect of property situate in any parish, &c. so omitted, or having their place of abode therein, and the votes of freemen residing out of the limits of the city or borough, may be taken at any of the said booths; and public notice of the situation, division, and allotment of the different booths to be given two days before the commencement of the poll, by the returning officer; and, in case the booths be situated in different places the returning officer may appoint a deputy to preside at each place.

Not more than 300 electors are to be allotted to poll in each booth or compartment. 5th and 6th William IV., cap. 36, s. 3. On the requisition of a candidate, or his proposer or seconder, upon paying the expenses incident thereto, the booths or compartments are to be so arranged, that not more than 100 shall be allotted to poll in each; s. 4.

Universities.—Act 16th and 17th Victoriæ, cap. 68, s. 5, enacts, "at every such Election the Vice Chancellor shall have power to appoint any Number of Polling Places not exceeding Three, in addition to the House of Convocation or Senate House, and to direct at which of such Polling Places the Members of Convocation and of the Senate according to their Colleges shall vote, and also to appoint any Number of Pro Vice Chancellors, any one of whom may receive the Votes and decide upon all Questions during the absence of such Vice Chancellor; and such Vice Chancellor shall have Power to appoint any Number of Poll Clerks and other Officers, by One or more of whom the Votes shall be entered in such Number of Poll Books as shall be judged necessary by such Vice Chancellor."

Poll not to be taken at Public Houses.

Act 16th and 17th Victoriæ, cap. 68, s. 6, enacts, "no Poll at any Election for Members of Parliament in England and Wales shall be taken at any Inn, Hotel, Tavern, Public House, or other Premises licensed for the Sale of Beer, Wine, or Spirits, or in any Booth, Hall, Room, or other Place directly communicating therewith, unless by Consent of all the Candidates expressed in Writing."

Certified Copies of the Register of Voters.

The Sheriff, or other Returning Officer, is, before the day fixed for the election, to cause to be made, for the use of each booth or other polling place at such election, a true copy of the register of voters, and, under his hand, certify every such copy to be true. 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 72.

Agents to detect Personation.

Any candidate, previous to the time fixed for taking the poll at an election, may nominate and appoint, in writing, any agent or agents, to attend at each of the booths, for the purpose of detecting personation. If at the time any person tenders his votes, or after he has voted, such agent shall declare to the Returning Officer that he verily believes, and undertakes to prove, that the person so voting is not, in fact, the person in whose name he assumes to vote, the Returning Officer is required, immediately after such person has voted, to order such person into custody. The person so charged is to be taken before two justices, when bail may be taken, and subsequently he may be committed for trial. If the charge is unfounded, the justices may order compensation, or an action may be brought against the candidate. 6th Victoriæ, cap. 18, s. 86.

Duration of the Poll.

COUNTIES.—Act 16th Victoriæ, cap. 15, s. 1. That so much of the Act passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter forty-five, as authorises the continuance of the polling at every such contested election as aforesaid for two days, and the duties of the sheriff's deputy and poll clerks at such poll during those days, and fixes the commencement and limits the hours of polling on such days, and prevents the commencement of such polling on a Saturday, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

2. At every contested Election of a knight or knights to serve in any Parliament after the first day of October one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three for any county, or for any riding, parts, or division of a county, the polling shall continue for ONE DAY ONLY, and the poll shall commence at eight o'clock in the morning, and be kept open until five in the afternoon of such day, and the poll clerks to be employed at the principal place of election and other places shall, at the final close of the day's poll, enclose and seal their several books, and shall publicly deliver them, so enclosed and sealed, to the Sheriff, under-Sheriff, or Sheriff's deputy presiding at such poll, and every such deputy who shall have received any such poll books shall forthwith deliver or transmit the same, so enclosed and sealed, to the Sheriff or his under-Sheriff, who shall receive and keep all the poll books unopened until the re-assembling of the Court on the day next but one after the close of the poll, unless such next day but one shall be Sunday, and then until the Monday following, when he shall openly break the seals thereon, and cast up the number of votes as they appear on the said several books, and shall openly declare the state of the poll, and shall make proclamation of the Member or Members chosen not later than two o'clock in the afternoon of the said day, any statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

3. The provisions concerning the adjournment of the poll in cases of riot or open violence, and other the provisions of section seventy of the said Act of the second year of King William the Fourth, shall be and remain applicable to every such contested election as aforesaid, as if the said section were re-enacted in this Act, the words "the day of polling" being substituted therein for the words "one of the two days of polling."

CITIES AND BOROUGHS.—Act 5th and 6th William IV., cap. 36. The time of taking the poll in boroughs, at all contested elections in England and Wales, is limited to ONE day.

Act 5th and 6th William IV., cap. 78, s. 5. The time of taking the poll at all borough elections in Scotland, is limited to One day.

By "The Representation of the People (Scotland) Act, 1868," s. 9, "the Universities of Scotland shall return two Members to serve in Parliament."

The Electors of Burgesses for the Universities may vote by means of Voting Papers.

Taking the Poll.

The Sheriff in counties is empowered to appoint poll clerks, to take the poll, by s. 65, 2nd William IV., cap. 45, and 7th and 8th William III., cap. 25, s. 3; in cities and boroughs the returning officer is to appoint a clerk, to take the poll at each compartment. S. 68, 2nd William IV., cap. 45.

A cheque book for every poll book for each candidate is to be allowed, to be kept by the respective inspectors at every place where the poll shall be taken. 18th George II., cap. 18, s. 9.

The Sheriff, or in his absence the under-Sheriff, shall appoint for each candidate such one person as shall be nominated to him by each candidate, to be inspector of every clerk who shall be appointed for taking the poll. 7th and 8th William III., cap. 25, s. 3.

In cities, being counties of themselves, the Sheriff shall allow a cheque book, for each candidate, for every poll book, 19 George II., cap. 20. In boroughs, having 600 electors, each compartment of a booth is to be provided with accommodation for an agent and cheque clerk for each of the candidates. 9th George IV., cap. 59.

The poll is taken upon the register, formed under the Registration of Voters Act, 6th Victoriæ, cap. 18, and certified by the Returning Officer, 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 72. The register is final, as to the right of any person whose name is entered therein, except in special cases; and the two following questions only can legally be put to any elector at the time of voting:—

1. Are you the same person whose Name appears as A. B. on the Register of Voters now in force for the county of [or for the Riding, Parts, or Division, &c., or, for the City, &c., as the case may be]?
2. Have you already voted, either here or elsewhere, at this Election, for the County of [or for the Riding, Parts, or Division of the County of or for the City or Borough of as the case may be]?

If demanded, the following oath may be put:—

You do swear [or being a Quaker, or Moravian, do affirm], that you are the same person whose name appears as A. B. on the Register of Voters now in force for the County of [or for the Riding, Parts, or Division of the County of or for the City or Borough of as the case may be], and that you have not before voted, either here or elsewhere, at the present Election for the said County, [or for the said Riding, Parts, or Division of the said County, or for the said City or Borough, as the case may be.]

So help you God.

(6th Victoriæ, cap. 18, s. 81.)

No other oath is to be put to an elector; the bribery oath is repealed by the "Corrupt Practices Prevention Act, 1854," (schedule).

It is not lawful for any person to vote at any County Election, whose name may be upon the register, where the qualification annexed to his name shall have appeared annexed thereto in the preceding register, and such person, on the last day of July in the year in which the register was made, shall have ceased to have such qualification. 6th Victoriæ, cap. 18, s. 79.

Nor is it lawful for a person to vote at any city or borough election unless he shall, ever since the thirty-first day of July, in the year in which his name was inserted in the register, have resided, and, at the time of voting, continue to reside, within such city or borough, or within the distance thereof required (seven miles). S. 79.

Persons not on the register may tender their votes, to raise the question of their right on petition and scrutiny, if they were rejected by express decisions of the Revising Barrister; the votes so given will be entered as "tendered" only. 6th Victoriæ, cap. 18, s. 98.

Though in general practice the votes of the electors are given for candidates who were previously nominated, yet the choice of the voters is not restricted thereto, but they may vote for whomsoever they please whether nominated or not, and whoever may be found to have the majority of legal votes recorded in his favour must be returned, in obedience to the command in the writ.

In case of riot, the returning officer may adjourn the proceedings until interruption ceases. 5th and 6th William IV., cap. 36, s. 8.

Declaration of the Poll.

In Counties, immediately upon the close of the poll, the books are sealed up, transmitted, by the deputy returning officer at each polling place to the Sheriff, who, on the next day but one, openly breaks the seals, casts up the number of votes given for each candidate, openly declares the state of the poll, and makes proclamation of the Member or Members chosen. 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 65.

In Cities and Boroughs, the presiding officer may declare the result of the poll immediately after the polling; or he is required to keep the poll books sealed up until the following day, and then to proceed in the same way as provided above for counties. 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 68.

Transmission and Custody of Poll Books.

After having declared the state of the poll, and made declaration of the Members chosen, the Sheriff and other returning officers are required orthwith to enclose and seal up the several poll books, and to tender the same to each of the candidates, to be sealed by them respectively. As soon as possible after such proclamation, the poll books, so sealed, are to be delivered to the Clerk of the Crown by the returning officer or his deputy, or transmitted to the Crown Office by post, under the special regulations set forth in s. 93, 6th Victoriæ, cap. 18.

The Clerk of the Crown is to keep and preserve the several poll books, and to deliver office copies, on payment of a reasonable charge for writing the same. S. 95. Ib.

Return to the Writ.

In Counties.—Act 7th Henry IV., cap. 15. The names of the persons chosen shall be written in an indenture, under the seals of those by whom they are chosen, and tacked to the writ, which shall be deemed the sheriff's return to such writ.

Now, in practice, only a dozen or so of the electors sign the indenture, which, tacked to the writ as directed, is transmitted to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery.

In Cities, Boroughs, and Universities, by s. 1, 16th and 17th Victoriæ, cap. 68, the returning officers, after the election, "in due course of law are to certify the same, together with the writ, according to the directions thereof;" and, accordingly, separate returns are made to the Clerk of the Crown, after the manner in counties.

Act 7th and 8th William III., cap. 7, s. 5. The clerk of the crown is to enter every return and amendment in a book to be kept for that purpose. All persons shall have access to the book, which, or a copy thereof, may be given in evidence. Such clerk not entering returns in six days after receipt, or making any alterations, or omitting to perform his duty, shall forfeit 500*l.* and lose his office.

Act 10th and 11th William III. cap. 7. Sheriffs not making returns shall forfeit 500*l.*

Act 11th and 12th Victoriæ, cap. 98, s. 103. That if any Sheriff or other returning officer shall wilfully delay, neglect, or refuse duly to return any person who ought to be returned, such person may, in case it had been determined by a Select Committee that such person was entitled to be returned, sue the Sheriff or other returning officer in any of Her Majesty's Courts at Westminster, and shall recover double the damages he has sustained by reason thereof.

Act 7th and 8th William III., cap. 7, s. 4. All contracts made to procure false returns shall be void, and the parties shall be subject to a penalty of 300*l.*; one-third to the Queen, another third to the poor, and one-third to the informer.

Amending Returns.

Returns were formerly amended by the returning officers; but, by a Resolution, April 20, 1690 (10th), Journal 377, they can only be amended by the House; for which purpose, when necessary, the clerk of the crown attends with his book, and amends it in the House, by erasing the names, or, in case of a double return, taking the void one off the file, and letting the other remain.

Act 7th and 8th William III., cap. 7, s. 5. Clerk of the Crown to enter in a book every alteration and amendment made in return.

Persons ineligible to be Members.

Infants.—No person, under twenty one years of age, is capable of being elected; and if any such minor shall presume to sit or vote in Parliament, he shall incur such penalties and forfeitures as if he had presumed to sit and vote without being chosen or returned. 7th and 8th William III., cap. 25.

Aliens, by the law of Parliament, are incapable of being Members, and are excluded by a vote of the House.

Act 12th and 13th William III., cap. 2. No person born out of England, Scotland, or Ireland, or the dominions thereunto belonging, is capable of being a Member of either House. This does not apply to persons born of English, Scotch, or Irish parents. Aliens naturalized are ineligible. 7th and 8th Victoriæ, cap. 66.

Recorders for boroughs where they have jurisdiction. 5th and 6th William IV., cap. 76.

Revising Barristers, for eighteen months after revision of the lists for any county, city, or borough for which they were appointed. 6th Victoriæ, cap. 18, s. 28.

Clergy, Priests, and Deacons; Ministers of the Scotch Church, 41 George III., cap. 63; Persons in Holy Orders of the Church of Rome, 10 George IV., cap. 7, s. 9.

Traitors, and felons; and outlaws in criminal prosecutions, but not in civil suits.

Idiots and Lunatics.

Bankrupts.—Act 52nd George III., cap. 144. Members declared bankrupts under a commission are, during twelve months, rendered incapable of sitting and voting, unless within such period the commission be superseded, and creditors paid in full; or, in case of disputed debts, bonds given with two securities, to be approved of by the commissioners, for the payment of such sums as shall be recovered in law or equity, with such costs as shall be given for the same; and if the above-recited conditions are not fulfilled within twelve calendar months, the Speaker shall issue his writ for the election of another member.

Excise and Customs.—Act 11th and 12th William III., cap. 2, s. 15, 152. No member of Parliament shall be a commissioner or farmer of the excise on beer, ale, or other liquors, or a commissioner of appeals, or comptroller, or auditor of the duty of excise; and such person, if elected, is declared incapable of sitting in the House of Commons.

Act 12th and 13th William III., cap. 10, ss. 89, 90. No member to be a commissioner or farmer of the customs; and persons executing such offices shall be incapable of sitting.

Act 15th George II., cap. 22, s. 1. No commissioners of the Revenue in Ireland, or of the Navy or Victualling Office, or any deputies or clerks in any of the said offices, or in any of the following offices, viz. the Lord

High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, Auditors, Tellers, or Chancellor of the Exchequer, Commissioners of the Admiralty, Paymasters of the Army or Navy, Principal Secretaries of State, or Commissioners of Salt, Stamps, Appeals, Wine Licences, Hackney Coaches, Hawkers, and Pedlars; persons holding any office, civil or military, in the island of Minorca, or in Gibraltar, except officers holding commissions in any regiment there only, shall be capable of being elected, or sitting or voting as members of any Parliament.

This Act exempts the Treasurer and Comptroller of the Navy, the Secretaries of the Treasury, Secretary to the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Secretaries to the Admiralty, Under-Secretary to any of the Principal Secretaries of State, or the Deputy Paymaster of the Army, from the operations of this Act.

By Act 29th and 30th Victoriæ, cap. 55, 1866, the Postmaster-General is enabled to sit in the House of Commons.

New Offices of Profit under the Crown.—Act 6th Anne, cap. 7, s. 25. But Members accepting any old office of profit, whilst members, their election to be void: such persons, however, may be re-elected.

Candidates declared guilty of Bribery, treating, or undue influence, by himself or his agents, by any Election Committee, are incapable of being elected or sitting in Parliament for such county, city, or borough during the Parliament then in existence. 17th and 18th Victoriæ, cap. 102, s. 36.

A person who is elected to serve in the House of Commons by the people, may, by the law and custom of Parliament, be disabled, and declared incapable to sit as a member; as where a person has been guilty of any crime which renders him infamous and the like.

Members on double returns for the same place are incapable of sitting till the returns are determined by a Committee; and there is a resolution of the House to this effect, made at the commencement of every session; but they enjoy all the privileges of members of Parliament.

Members who have taken their seats are ineligible for any other place, until they have vacated their former seats; but persons elected for one place may, before they take their seats, be returned for any other place; in which case, by an order of the House, they are to make their election by that day three weeks, for which of the places they will serve, provided there be no question upon the return from that place.

Abolition of the requirement of a Property Qualification.

No property qualification is now required of Members of Parliament.

The Act of the ninth year of the reign of Queen Anne, and the several subsequent statutes, which required the possession of certain property qualifications by all candidates for seats in Parliament, are repealed by the 21st and 22nd Victoriæ, cap. 26.

Notice to Electors of Ineligibility of Candidates.

If the disqualification or ineligibility of candidates be within the knowledge of the electors, or they be previously made fully acquainted therewith, their votes, if given for such ineligible candidates, will be "thrown away." Voters polling for a candidate after due notice of his being ineligible, are to be considered as not voting at all, and, on petition, the next legal candidate on the poll would be declared duly elected. The notice to the electors should be in writing, or printed, signed by a candidate, or two or more electors, and every publicity given thereto.

RETURNING OFFICER'S EXPENSES.

A candidate is not legally liable for any other than his proper equal share of the following official expenses, unless by himself or his appointed agents he has authorised other expenses or charges to be incurred by the returning officer:—

1. The expense of erecting the polling booths; such expense in counties not to exceed the sum of 40*l.* in respect of any one principal place of election, or any one polling place, and in cities and boroughs the sum of 25*l.* in respect of any parish, district, or part thereof.
2. The payment of "two guineas by the day" to each deputy returning officer.
3. The payment of "one guinea by the day" to each poll clerk.

The items are to be discharged at the "joint and equal expense of the several candidates."

The booths may be erected "by contract with the candidates, if they shall think fit;" and "the Sheriff or other returning officer may, if he shall think fit, instead of erecting such booth or booths as aforesaid, procure or hire the use of any houses or other buildings, for the purpose of taking the poll therein." 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 71.

PAYMENT OF ELECTION EXPENSES.

The several provisions of the "Corrupt Practices Prevention Act, 1854," as to the appointment of an election auditor, and the payment and publication of election expenses, are repealed by the 26th Vic., cap. 29, and the following enactments are substituted:—

By Sec. 2, no payment, (except in respect of the personal expenses of a candidate,) advance, loan, or deposit, by or on behalf of any candidate, before, during, or after an election, is to be made otherwise than through an appointed agent of such candidate. Persons making any such prohibited payment, &c. shall be guilty of a misdemeanour.

The candidate is to declare in writing, to the Returning Officer, on or before the day of nomination, the name and address of his agent or agents; and it is the duty of the Returning Officer to publish the same.

By Sec. 3, all bills, charges, or claims upon any candidate shall be sent in within one month from the day of declaration of the election, to the appointed agent, or right to recover the same barred. Should there be no agent, the bills, &c. are then to be sent to the candidate.

By Sec. 4, a detailed statement of all election expenses incurred, shall, within two months after the election, be made out and signed by the agent who has paid the same, and delivered, with the bills and vouchers, to the returning officer. The returning officer, within fourteen days, is to publish an abstract of such statement, with the signature of the agent thereto, by advertisement in one of the local newspapers. Any agent or candidate making default in delivering such statement, shall incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day during which he so makes default. Any agent or candidate who wilfully furnishes an untrue statement shall be guilty of a misdemeanour. The returning officer is to preserve the bills and vouchers during six months, and to permit any voter to inspect the same, on payment of a fee of one shilling.

Bribery, Treating, and Intimidation.

The laws relating to bribery and corrupt practices are "The Corrupt Practices Prevention Act, 1854," and "The Parliamentary Elections Act, 1868." Definitions of the offences of bribery, treating, and intimidation, with the several penalties and remedies attached thereto, will be found in the first fourteen sections of "The Corrupt Practices Prevention Act, 1854."

No person, who is called as a witness before any election committee, shall be excused from answering any question on the ground that the answer may tend to criminate himself. Committee may grant a certificate to any witness, which shall be a stay to any proceedings taken against him in respect of any matters concerning or relating to which the witness may have been examined. 26th Vic. cap. 29.

Favours, Bands of Music, &c.

Cockades, ribbons, and colours are prohibited, and payments for bands of music, flags, and banners illegal. S. 7.

Travelling Expenses of Voters.

"It shall not be lawful for any candidate, or any one on his behalf, at any election for any borough, except the several boroughs of East Retford, Shoreham, Cricklade, Much Wenlock, and Aylesbury, to pay any money on account of the conveyance of any voter to the poll, either to the voter himself, or to any other person; and if any such candidate, or any person on his behalf, shall pay any money on account of the conveyance of any voter to the poll, such payment shall be deemed to be an illegal payment within the meaning of "The Corrupt Practices Prevention Act, 1854." 30th and 31st Victoriæ, cap. 102, s. 36.

"THE CORRUPT PRACTICES PREVENTION ACT, 1854."

Bribery at Elections and Payment of Election Expenses.

An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Bribery, Treating, and undue Influence at Elections of Members of Parliament.

[10*th August*, 1854.]

WHEREAS the laws now in force for preventing corrupt practices in the election of members to serve in Parliament have been found insufficient; And whereas it is expedient to consolidate and amend such laws, and to make further provision for securing the freedom of such elections: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

I. The several Acts of Parliament mentioned in the Schedule A. hereto annexed shall be repealed to the extent specified concerning the same Acts respectively in the third column of the said Schedule.

2. Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, by himself, or by any other person on his behalf, give or procure, or agree to give or procure, or offer, promise, or promise to procure or to endeavour to procure, any office, place, or employment to or for any voter, or to or for any person on behalf of any voter, or to or for any other person, in order to induce such voter to vote, or refrain from voting, or shall corruptly do any such act as aforesaid, on account of any voter having voted or refrained from voting at any election:
3. Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, by himself, or by any other person on his behalf, make any such gift, loan, offer, promise, procurement, or agreement as aforesaid, to or for any person, in order to induce such person to procure, or endeavour to procure, the return of any person to serve in Parliament, or the vote of any voter at any election:
4. Every person who shall, upon or in consequence of any such gift, loan, offer, promise, procurement, or agreement, procure or engage, promise, or endeavour to procure the return of any person to serve in Parliament, or the vote of any voter at any election;
5. Every person who shall advance or pay, or cause to be paid, any money to, or to the use of any other person, with the intent that such money, or any part thereof, shall be expended in bribery at any election, or who shall knowingly pay, or cause to be paid, any money to any person in discharge or repayment of any money wholly or in part expended in bribery at any election;

And any person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and in Scotland of an offence punishable by fine and imprisonment, and shall also be liable to forfeit the sum of one hundred pounds to any person who shall sue for the same, together with full costs of suit: Provided always, that the aforesaid enactment shall not extend or be construed to extend to any money paid or agreed to be paid for or on account of any legal expenses bonâ fide incurred at or concerning any election.

III. The following persons shall also be deemed guilty of bribery, and shall be punishable accordingly:—

1. Every voter who shall, before or during any election, directly or indirectly, by himself, or by any other person on his behalf, receive, agree, or contract for any money, gift, loan, or valuable consideration, office, place, or employment, for himself or for any other person, for voting or agreeing to vote, or for refraining or agreeing to refrain from voting at any election:
2. Every person who shall, after any election, directly or indirectly, by himself, or by any other person on his behalf, receive any money or valuable consideration on account of any person having voted or refrained from voting, or having induced any other person to vote or to refrain from voting, at any election:

And any person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and in Scotland, of an offence punishable by fine and imprisonment, and shall also be liable to forfeit the sum of ten pounds to any person who shall sue for the same, together with full costs of suit.

IV. Every candidate at an election, who shall corruptly by himself, or by or with any person, or by any other ways or means on his behalf, at any time, either before, during, or after any election, directly or indirectly give or provide, or cause to be given or provided, or shall be accessory to the giving or providing, or shall pay, wholly or in part, any expenses incurred for any meat, drink, entertainment, or provision to or for any person, in order to be elected, or for being elected, or for the purpose of corruptly influencing such person or any other person to give or refrain from giving his vote at such election, or on account of such person having voted or refrained from voting, or being about to vote or refrain from voting, at such election shall be deemed guilty of the offence of treating, and shall forfeit the sum of fifty pounds to any person who shall sue for the same, with full costs of suit; and every voter who shall corruptly accept or take any such meat, drink, entertainment, or provision, shall be incapable of voting at such election, and his vote, if given, shall be utterly void and of none effect.

V. Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, by himself, or by any other person on his behalf, make use of, or threaten to make use of, any force, violence, or restraint, or inflict or threaten the infliction, by himself, or by or through any other person, of any injury, damage, harm or loss, or in any other manner practise intimidation upon or against any person in order to induce or compel such person to vote or refrain from voting, or on account of such person having voted or refrained from voting, at any election, or who shall, by abduction, duress, or any fraudulent device or contrivance, impede, prevent, or otherwise interfere with the free exercise of the franchise of any voter, or shall thereby compel, induce, or prevail upon any voter, either to give or to refrain from giving his vote at any election, shall be deemed to have committed the offence of undue influence, and shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and in Scotland, of an offence punishable by fine or imprisonment, and shall also be liable to forfeit the sum of fifty pounds to any person who shall sue for the same, together with full costs of suit.

VI. Whenever it shall be proved before the Revising Barrister that any person who is or claims to be placed on the list or register of voters for any county, city, or borough, has been convicted of bribery or undue influence at an election, or that judgment has been obtained against any such person for any penal sum hereby made recoverable in respect of the offences of bribery, treating, or undue influence, or either of them, then and in that case such Revising Barrister shall, in case the name of such person is in the list of voters, expunge the same therefrom, or shall, in case such person is claiming to have his name inserted therein, disallow such claim; and the names of all persons whose names shall be so expunged from the list of voters, and whose claims shall be so disallowed, shall be thereupon inserted in a separate list, to be entitled "The list of persons disqualified for bribery, treating, or undue "influence," which last-mentioned list shall be appended to the list or register of voters, and shall be printed and published therewith, wherever the same shall be or is required to be printed or published.

VII. No candidate before, during, or after any election shall, in regard to such election, by himself or agent, directly or indirectly, give or provide to or for any person having a vote at such election, or to or for any inhabitant of the county, city, borough, or place for which such election is had, any cockade, ribbon, or other mark of distinction; and every person so giving or providing shall, for every such offence, forfeit the sum of two pounds to such person as shall sue for the same, together with full costs of suit; and all payments made for or on account of any chairing, or any such cockade, ribbon, or mark of distinction as aforesaid, or of any bands of music or flags or banners, shall be deemed illegal payments within this Act.

VIII. No person having a right to vote at the election for any county, city, borough, or other place, shall be liable or compelled to serve as a special constable at or during any election for a member or members to serve in Parliament for such county, city, borough, or other place, unless he shall consent so to act; and he shall not be liable to any fine, penalty, or punishment whatever for refusing so to act, any statute, law, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

IX. The pecuniary penalties hereby imposed for the offences of bribery, treating, or undue influence respectively, shall be recoverable by action or suit, by any person who shall sue for the same in any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts at Westminster, if the offence be committed in England or Wales, and in any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts in Dublin, if the offence be committed in Ireland, and in or before the Court of Session, if the offence be committed in Scotland, and not otherwise.

X. It shall be lawful for any criminal court, before which any prosecution shall be instituted for any offence against the provisions of this Act, to order payment to the prosecutor of such costs and expenses as to the said court shall appear to have been reasonably incurred in and about the conduct of such prosecution: Provided always, that no indictment for bribery, or undue influence shall be triable before any Court of Quarter Sessions.

XI. For the more effectual observance of this Act, every returning officer to whom the execution of any writ or precept for electing any member or members to serve in Parliament may appertain or belong shall, in lieu of the proclamation or notice of election heretofore used, publish or cause to be published such proclamation or notice of election as is mentioned in Schedule B. to this Act, or to the like effect.

XII. In case of any indictment or information by a private prosecutor for any offence against the provisions of this Act, if judgment shall be given for the defendant, he shall be entitled to recover from the prosecutor the costs sustained by the defendant by reason of such indictment or information, such costs to be taxed by the proper officer of the court in which such judgment shall be given.

XIII. It shall not be lawful for any court to order payment of the costs of a prosecution for any offence against the provisions of this Act, unless the prosecutor shall, before or upon the finding of the indictment or the granting of the information, enter into a recognizance, with two sufficient sureties, in the sum of two hundred pounds (to be acknowledged in like manner as is now required in cases of writs of certiorari awarded at the instance of a defendant in an indictment), with the conditions following; that is to say, that the prosecutor shall conduct the prosecution with effect, and shall pay to the defendant or defendants, in case he or they shall be acquitted, his or their costs.

XIV. No person shall be liable to any penalty or forfeiture hereby enacted or imposed, unless some prosecution, action, or suit for the offence committed shall be commenced against such person within the space of one year next after such offence against this Act shall be committed, and unless such person shall be summoned or otherwise served with writ or process within the same space of time so as such summons or service of writ or process shall not be prevented by such person absconding or withdrawing out of the jurisdiction of the court out of which such writ or other process shall have issued; and in case of any such prosecution, suit, or process as aforesaid, the same shall be proceeded with and carried on without any wilful delay.

XXIII. And whereas doubts have also arisen as to whether the giving of refreshment to voters on the day of nomination or day of polling be or be not according to law, and it is expedient that such doubts should be removed: Be it declared and enacted, that the giving or causing to be given to any voter on the day of nomination or day of polling, on account of such voter having polled or being about to poll, any meat, drink, or entertainment by way of refreshment, or any money or ticket to enable such voter to obtain refreshment, shall be deemed an illegal act, and the person so offending shall forfeit the sum of forty shillings for each offence, to any person who shall sue for the same, together with full costs of suit.

Expenses of Elections.

II. No payment (except in respect to the personal expenses of a candidate), and no advance, loan, or deposit, shall be made by or on behalf of any candidate at an election, before, or during, or after such election, on account of or in respect of such election, otherwise than through an agent or agents whose name and address or names and addresses have been declared in writing to the returning officer on or before the day of nomination, or through an agent or agents to be appointed in his or their place as herein provided; and any person making any such payment, advance, loan, or deposit, otherwise than through such agent or agents, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, or, in Scotland of an offence punishable by fine and imprisonment. It shall be the duty of the returning officer to publish, on or before the day of nomination, the name and address or the names and addresses of the agent or agents appointed in pursuance of this section.

In the event of the death or legal incapacity of any agent appointed in pursuance of this section, the candidate shall forthwith appoint another agent in his place on giving notice to the returning officer of the name and address of the person so appointed, which shall be forthwith published by the returning officer.

III. All persons who have any bills, charges, or claims upon any candidate for or in respect of any election shall send in such bills, charges, or claims, within one month from the day of the declaration of the election to such agent or agents as aforesaid, otherwise such persons shall be barred of their right to recover such claims and every or any part thereof: provided always, that in case of the death within the said month of any person claiming the amount of such bill, charge, or claim, the legal representative of such person shall send in such bill, charge, or claim within one month after obtaining probate or letters of administration, or confirmation as executor, as the case may be, or the right to recover such claim shall be barred as aforesaid: provided also that such bills, charges, and claims shall and may be sent in and delivered to the candidate, if, and so long as, during the said month, there shall, owing to death or legal incapacity, be no such agent.

IV. A detailed statement of all election expenses incurred by or on behalf of any candidate, including such excepted payments as aforesaid, shall, within two months after the election, (or in cases where by reason of the death of the creditor no bill has been sent in within such period of two months, then within one month after such bill has been sent in,) be made out and signed by the agent or, if there be more than one, by every agent who has paid the same (including the candidate in case of payments made by him), and delivered, with the bills and vouchers relative thereto, to the returning officer, and the returning officer for the time being shall, at the expense of the candidate, within fourteen days, insert or cause to be inserted, an abstract of such statement, with the signature of the agent thereto, in some newspaper published or circulating in the county or place where the election was held; and any agent or candidate who makes default in delivering to the returning officer the statement required by this section shall incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day during which he so makes default; and any agent or candidate who wilfully furnishes to the said returning officer an untrue statement shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, or in Scotland of an offence punishable by fine and imprisonment; and the said returning officer shall preserve all such bills and vouchers, and during six months after they have been delivered to him permit any voter to inspect the same, on payment of a fee of one shilling.

In any indictment or information for bribery or undue influence, and in any action or proceeding for any penalty for bribery, treating, or undue influence, it shall be sufficient to allege that the defendant was at the election at or in connexion with which the offence is intended to be alleged to have been committed guilty of bribery, treating, or undue influence (as the case may require); and in any criminal or civil proceedings in relation to any such offence the certificate of the returning officer in this behalf shall be sufficient evidence of the due holding of the election, and of any person therein named having been a candidate thereat.

VII. No person who is called as a witness before any election committee, or any commissioners appointed in pursuance of the Act of the session holden in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter fifty-seven, shall be excused from answering any question relating to any corrupt practice at, or connected with, any election forming the subject of inquiry by such committee or commissioners, on the ground that the answer thereto may criminate or tend to criminate himself: Provided always, that where any witness shall answer every question relating to the matters aforesaid which he shall be required by such committee or commissioners (as the case may be) to answer, and the answer to which may criminate, or tend to criminate him, he shall be entitled to receive from the committee, under the hand of their clerk, or from the commissioners, under their hands (as the case may be), a certificate stating that such witness was, upon his examination, required by the said committee or commissioners to answer questions or a question relating to the matters aforesaid, the answers or answer to which criminated or tended to criminate him, and had answered all such questions or such question; and if any information, indictment, or action be at any time thereafter pending in any court against such witness for any offence under the Corrupt Practices Prevention Acts, or for which he might have been prosecuted or proceeded against under such acts, committed by him previously to the time of his giving his evidence, and at or in relation to the election concerning or in relation to which the witness may have been so examined, the court shall, on production and proof of such certificate, stay the proceedings in such last-mentioned information, indictment, or action, and may, at its discretion, award to such witness such costs as he may have been put to in such information, indictment, or action: Provided that no statement made by any person in answer to any question put by or before such election committee or commissioners shall, except in cases of indictments for perjury, be admissible in evidence in any proceeding, civil or criminal.

Election Committees.

VIII. The following regulations shall be made with respect to the proceedings of select committees appointed to try election petitions:—

1. On any charge of treating being brought before any election committee, it shall not be necessary, unless the committee should otherwise decide, to prove agency in the first instance before giving in evidence the facts whereby the charge of treating is to be sustained:
2. Where any person who has voted at any election is found by any committee to have been guilty of bribery or treating at such election, his vote shall be void, and may, upon a scrutiny, be struck off the list of voters, notwithstanding that the name of such guilty person has not been included in the list of voters to be objected to:
3. Where any election petition complains that bribery, treating, or other corrupt practices have been committed at any election, the committee to whose determination such petition is referred shall report to the House of Commons whether or not corrupt practices have, or whether there is reason to believe corrupt practices have, extensively prevailed at such election in the place to which the petition refers.

IX. Where an election committee has reported to the House of Commons that certain persons named by them have been guilty of bribery or treating, and where it appears by the report of any commission of inquiry into corrupt practices at any election made to Her Majesty and laid before Parliament that certain persons named by them have been guilty of the offences of bribery or treating, and have not been furnished by them with certificates of indemnity, such report, with the evidence taken by the commission, shall be laid before the Attorney General, with a view to his instituting a prosecution against such persons if the evidence should, in his opinion, be sufficient to support a prosecution.

Repeal.

X. There shall be repealed the several Acts of Parliament mentioned in the Schedule hereto to the extent specified in the third column of the said Schedule, but such repeal shall not affect the punishment of any offence or the recovery of any penalty or forfeiture incurred under any of the provisions hereby repealed.

XI. The Corrupt Practices Prevention Acts shall continue in force for a period of five years from the date of the passing of this Act, and from thenceforth until the end of the then next session of Parliament.

"THE ELECTION PETITIONS AND CORRUPT PRACTICES AT ELECTIONS ACT, 1868."

An Act for amending the Laws relating to Election Petitions, and providing more effectually for the prevention of corrupt practices at Parliamentary Elections. [31*st July*, 1868.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the laws relating to election petitions, and to provide more effectually for the prevention of corrupt practices at Parliamentary elections:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords spiritual and temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Preliminary.

I. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Parliamentary Elections Act, 1868."

II. The expression "the Court" shall, for the purposes of this Act, in its application to England mean the Court of Common Pleas at Westminster, and in its application to Ireland the Court of Common Pleas at Dublin, and such Court shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, have the same powers, jurisdiction, and authority with reference to an election petition and the proceedings thereon as it would have if such petition were an ordinary cause within their jurisdiction.

III. The following terms shall in this Act have the meanings hereinafter assigned to them, unless there is something in the context repugnant to such construction; (that is to say,)

"Metropolitan District" shall mean the City of London and the liberties thereof, and any parish or place subject to the jurisdiction of the Metropolitan Board of Works:

"Election" shall mean an election of a member or members to serve in Parliament:

"County" shall not include a County of a City or County of a Town, but shall mean any county, riding, parts, or division of a county returning a member or members to serve in Parliament:

"Borough" shall mean any borough, university, city, place, or combination of places, not being a county as herein-before defined, returning a member or members to serve in Parliament:

"Candidate" shall mean any person elected to serve in Parliament at an election, and any person who has been nominated as or declared himself a candidate at an election:

"Corrupt Practices" or "Corrupt Practice" shall mean bribery, treating, and undue influence, or any of such offences, as defined by Act of Parliament, or recognized by the common law of Parliament:

"Rules of Court" shall mean rules to be made as herein-after mentioned:

"Prescribed" shall mean "prescribed by the rules of Court."

IV. For the purposes of this Act "Speaker" shall be deemed to include deputy speaker; and when the office of speaker is vacant, the clerk of the House of Commons, or any other officer for the time being performing the duties of the clerk of the House of Commons, shall be deemed to be substituted for and to be included in the expression "the speaker."

Presentation and Service of Petition.

V. From and after the next dissolution of Parliament a petition complaining of an undue return or undue election of a member to serve in Parliament for a county or borough may be presented to the Court of Common Pleas at Westminster, if such county or borough is situate in England, or to the Court of Common Pleas at Dublin, if such county or borough is situate in Ireland, by any one or more of the following persons:

1. Some person who voted or who had a right to vote at the election to which the petition relates; or,
2. Some person claiming to have had a right to be returned or elected at such election; or,
3. Some person alleging himself to have been a candidate at such election:

And such petition is herein-after referred to as an election petition.

VI. The following enactments shall be made with respect to the presentation of an election petition under this Act:

1. The petition shall be signed by the Petitioner, or all the Petitioners if more than One:
2. The petition shall be presented within twenty-one days after the return has been made to the clerk of the crown in Chancery in England, or to the clerk of the crown and hanaper in Ireland, as the case may be, of the member to whose election the petition relates, unless it question the return or election upon an allegation of corrupt practices, and specifically alleges a payment of money or other reward to have been made by any member, or on his account, or with his privity, since the time of such return, in pursuance or in furtherance of such corrupt practices, in which case the petition may be presented at any time within twenty-eight days after the date of such payment:
3. Presentation of a petition shall be made by delivering it to the prescribed officer or otherwise dealing with the same in manner prescribed.
4. At the time of the presentation of the petition, or within three days afterwards, security for the payment of all costs, charges, and expenses that may become payable by the petitioner—
   (a.) to any person summoned as a witness on his behalf, or,
   (b.) to the member whose election or return is complained of (who is herein-after referred to as the respondent), shall be given on behalf of the petitioner:
5. The security shall be to an amount of one thousand pounds; it shall be given either by recognizance to be entered into by any number of sureties not exceeding four, or by a deposit of money in manner prescribed, or partly in one way and partly in the other.

VII. On presentation of the petition the prescribed officer shall send a copy thereof to the returning officer of the county or borough to which the petition relates, who shall forthwith publish the same in the county or borough, as the case may be.

VIII. Notice of the presentation of a petition under this Act, and of the nature of the proposed security, accompanied with a copy of the petition, shall, within the prescribed time, not exceeding five days after the presentation of the petition, be served by the petitioner on the respondent; and it shall be lawful for the respondent, where the security is given wholly or partially by recognizance, within a further prescribed time, not exceeding five days from the date of the service on him of the notice, to object in writing to such recognizance, on the ground that the sureties, or any of them, are insufficient, or that a surety is dead, or that he cannot be found or ascertained from the want of a sufficient description in the recognizance, or that a person named in the recognizance has not duly acknowledged the same.

IX. Any objection made to the security given shall be heard and decided on in the prescribed manner. If an objection to the security is allowed it shall be lawful for the petitioner, within a further prescribed time, not exceeding five days, to remove such objection, by a deposit in the prescribed manner of such sum of money as may be deemed by the court or officer having cognizance of the matter to make the security sufficient.

If on objection made the security is decided to be insufficient, and such objection is not removed in manner herein-before mentioned, no further proceedings shall be had on the petition; otherwise, on the expiration of the time limited for making objections, or, after objection made, on the sufficiency of the security being established the petition shall be deemed to be at issue.

X. The prescribed officer shall, as soon as may be, make out a list of all petitions under this Act presented to the court of which he is such officer, and which are at issue, placing them in the order in which they were presented, and shall keep at his office a copy of such list, herein-after referred to as the election list, open to the inspection in the prescribed manner of any person making application.

Such petitions, as far as conveniently may be, shall be tried in the order in which they stand in such list.

Trial of a Petition.

XI. The following enactments shall be made with respect to the trial of election petitions under this Act:

1. The trial of every election petition shall be conducted before a puisne judge of one Her Majesty's Superior Courts of common law at Westminster or Dublin, according as the same shall have been presented to the court at Westminster or Dublin, to be selected from a rota to be formed as herein-after mentioned.
2. The members of each of the Courts of Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer in England and Ireland shall respectively, on or before the third day of Michaelmas term in every year, select, by a majority of votes, one of the puisne judges of such court, not being a member of the House of Lords, to be placed on the rota for the trial of election petitions during the ensuing year.

3. If in any case the members of the said court are equally divided in their choice of a puisne judge to be placed on the rota, the chief justice of such court (including under that expression the Chief Baron of the Exchequer) shall have a second or casting vote.

4. Any judge placed on the rota shall be re-eligible in the succeeding or any subsequent year.

5. In the event of the death or the illness of any judge for the time being on the rota, or his inability to act for any reasonable cause, the court to which he belongs shall fill up the vacancy by placing on the rota another puisne judge of the same court.

6. The judges for the time being on the rota shall, according to their seniority, respectively try the election petitions standing for trial under this Act, unless they otherwise agree among themselves, in which case the trial of each election petition shall be taken in manner provided by such agreement.

7. Where it appears to the judges on the rota, after due consideration of the list of petitions under this Act for the time being at issue, that the trial of such election petitions will be inconveniently delayed unless an additional judge or judges be appointed to assist the judges on the rota, each of the said courts (that is to say,) the Court of Exchequer, the Court of Common Pleas, and the Court of Queen's Bench, in the order named, shall, on and according to the requisition of such judges on the rota, select, in manner hereinbefore provided, one of the puisne judges of the court to try election petitions for the ensuing year; and any judge so selected shall, during that year, be deemed to be on the rota for the trial of election petitions.

8. Her Majesty may, in manner heretofore in use, appoint an additional puisne judge to each of the Courts of Queen's Bench, the Common Pleas, and Exchequer in England:

9. Every election petition shall, except where it raises a question of law for the determination of the court, as hereinafter mentioned, be tried by one of the judges herein-before in that behalf mentioned, herein-after referred to as the judge sitting in open court without a jury.

10. Notice of the time and place at which an election petition will be tried shall be given, not less than fourteen days before the day on which the trial is held, in the prescribed manner.

11. The trial of an election petition in the case of a petition relating to a borough election shall take place in the borough, and in the case of a petition relating to a county election in the county: Provided always, that if it shall appear to the court that special circumstances exist which render it desirable that the petition should be tried elsewhere than in the borough or county, it shall be lawful for the court to appoint such other place for the trial as shall appear most convenient: provided also, that in the case of a petition relating to any of the boroughs within the metropolitan district, the petition may be held at such place within the district as the court may appoint.

12. The judge presiding at the trial may adjourn the same from time to time and from any one place to any other place within the county or borough, as to him may seem expedient.

13. At the conclusion of the trial the judge who tried the petition shall determine whether the member whose return or election is complained of, or any and what other person, was duly returned or elected, or whether the election was void, and shall forthwith certify in writing such determination to the Speaker, and upon such certificate being given such determination shall be final to all intents and purposes.

14. Where any charge is made in an election petition of any corrupt practice having been committed at the election to which the petition refers, the judge shall, in addition to such certificate, and at the same time, report in writing to the Speaker as follows:

(a.) Whether any corrupt practice has or has not been proved to have been committed by or with the knowledge and consent of any candidate at such election, and the nature of such corrupt practice:

(b.) The names of all persons (if any) who have been proved at the trial to have been guilty of any corrupt practice:

(c.) Whether corrupt practices have, or whether there is reason to believe that corrupt practices have, extensively prevailed at the election to which the petition relates.

15. The judge may at the same time make a special report to the Speaker as to any matters arising in the course of the trial an account of which in his judgment ought to be submitted to the House of Commons.

16. Where, upon the application of any party to a petition made in the prescribed manner to the court, it appears to the court that the case raised by the petition can be conveniently stated as a special case, the court may direct the same to be stated accordingly, and any such special case shall, as far as may be, be heard before the court, and the decision of the court shall be final; and the court shall certify to the Speaker its determination in reference to such special case.

XII. Provided always, that if it shall appear to the judge on the trial of the said petition that any question or questions of law as to the admissibility of evidence or otherwise require further consideration by the Court of Common Pleas, then it shall be lawful for the said judge to postpone the granting of the said certificate until the determination of such question or questions by the court, and for this purpose to reserve any such question or questions in like manner as questions are usually reserved by a judge on a trial at nisi prius.

XIII. The House of Commons, on being informed by the Speaker of such certificate and report or reports, if any, shall order the same to be entered in their journals, and shall give the necessary directions for confirming or altering the return, or for issuing a writ for a new election, or for carrying the determination into execution, as circumstances may require.

XIV. Where the judge makes a special report the House of Commons may make such order in respect of such special report as they think proper.

XV. If the jndge states in his report on the trial of an election petition under this Act that corrupt practices have, or that there is reason to believe that corrupt practices have, extensively prevailed in any county or borough at the election to which the petition relates, such statement shall for all the purposes of the Act of the session of the fifteenth and sixteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter fifty-seven, intituled an Act to provide for more effectual inquiry into the existence of corrupt practices at elections of members to serve in Parliament, have the same effect and may be dealt with in the same manner as if it were a report of a committee of the House of Commons appointed to try an election petition, and the expenses of any commission of inquiry which may be issued in accordance with the provisions of the said Act shall be defrayed as if they were expenses incurred in the registration of voters for such county or borough.

XVI. The report of the judge in respect of persons guilty of corrupt practices shall for the purpose of the prosecution of such persons in pursuance of section nine of the Act of the twenty-sixth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter twenty-nine, have the same effect as the report of the election committee therein mentioned that certain persons have been guilty of bribery and treating.

XXII. Two or more candidates may be made respondents to the same petition, and their case may for the sake of convenience be tried at the same time, but for all the purposes of this Act, such petition shall be deemed to be a separate petition against each respondent.

XXIII. Where, under this Act, more petitions than one are presented relating to the same election or return, all such petitions shall in the election list be bracketed together, and shall be dealt with as one petition, but such petitions shall stand in the election list in the place where the last of such petitions would have stood if it had been the only petition presented, unless the Court shall otherwise direct.

XXIV. On the trial of an election petition under this Act the shorthand writer of the House of Commons or his deputy shall attend and shall be sworn by the judge faithfully and truly to take down the evidence given at the trial, and from time to time as occasion requires to write or cause the same to be written in words at length; and it shall be the duty of such shorthand writer to take down such evidence, and from time to time to write or cause the same to be written at length, and a copy of such evidence shall accompany the certificate made by the judge to the Speaker; and the expenses of the shorthand writer shall be deemed to be part of the expenses incurred in receiving the judge.

Jurisdiction and Rules of Court.

XXV. The judges for the time being on the rota for the trial of election petitions in England and Ireland may respectively from time to time make, and may from time to time revoke and alter, general rules and orders (in this Act referred to as the rules of court), for the effectual execution of this Act, and of the intention and object thereof, and the regulation of the practice, procedure, and costs of election petitions, and the trial thereof, and the certifying and reporting thereon.

Any general rules and orders made as aforesaid shall be deemed to be within the powers conferred by this Act, and shall be of the same force as if they were enacted in the body of this Act.

Any general rules and orders made in pursuance of this section shall be laid before Parliament within three weeks after they are made, if Parliament be then sitting, and if Parliament be not then sitting, within three weeks after the beginning of the then next session of Parliament.

XXVI. Until rules of court have been made in pursuance of this Act, and so far as such rules do not extend, the principles, practice, and rules on which committees of the House of Commons have theretofore acted in dealing with election petitions shall be observed so far as may be by the court and judge in the case of election petitions under this Act.

XXVII. The duties to be performed by the prescribed officer under this Act shall be performed by such one or more of the masters of the Court of Common Pleas at Westminster as may be determined by the chief justice of the said Court of Common Pleas, and by the master of the Court of Common Pleas at Dublin, and there shall be awarded to such masters respectively, in addition to their existing salaries, such remuneration for the performance of the duties imposed on them in pursuance of this Act as the chief justices of the said Courts of Common Pleas at Westminster and Dublin may respectively, with the consent of the commissioners of the treasury, determine.

Reception, Expenses, and Jurisdiction of Judge.

XXVIII. The judge shall be received at the place where he is about to try an election petition under this Act with the same state, so far as circumstances admit, as a judge of assize is received at an assize town; he shall be received by the sheriff in the case of a petition relating to a county election, and in any other case by the mayor, in the case of a borough having a mayor and in the case of a borough not having a mayor by the sheriff of the county in which the borough is situate, or by some person named by such sheriff.

XXIX. On the trial of an election petition under this Act the judge shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, have the same powers, jurisdiction, and authority as a judge of one of the superior courts and as a judge of assize and nisi prius, and the court held by him shall be a court of record.

XXX. The judge shall be attended on the trial of an election petition under this Act in the same manner as if he were a judge sitting at nisi prius, and the expenses of such attendance shall be deemed to be part of the expenses of providing a court.

Witnesses.

XXXI. Witnesses shall be subpœnaed and sworn in the same manner as nearly as circumstances admit as in a trial at nisi prius, and shall be subject to the same penalties for perjury.

XXXII. On the trial of an election petition under this Act the judge may, by order under his hand, compel the attendance of any person as a witness who appears to him to have been concerned in the election to which the petition refers, and any person refusing to obey such order shall be guilty of contempt of court. The judge may examine any witness so compelled to attend or any person in court although such witness is not called and examined by any party to the petition. After the examination of a witness as aforesaid by a judge such witness may be cross-examined by or on behalf of the petitioner and respondent, or either of them.

XXXIII. The provisions of the seventh section of the Act of the session of the twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter twenty-nine relating to the examination and indemnity of witnesses, shall apply to any witness appearing before a judge on the trial of an election petition under this Act, in the same manner as in the case of a trial before a committee of the House of Commons before the passing of this Act, and the certificate shall be given under the hand of the judge.

XXXIV. The reasonable expenses incurred by any person in appearing to give evidence at the trial of an election petition under this Act according to the scale allowed to witnesses on the trial of civil actions at the assizes, may be allowed to such persons by a certificate under the hand of the judge or of the prescribed officer, and such expenses if the witness was called and examined by the judge shall be deemed part of the expenses of providing a court, and in other cases shall be deemed to be costs of the petition.

Withdrawal and Abatement of Election Petitions.

XXXV. An election petition under this Act shall not be withdrawn without the leave of the court or judge upon special application to be made in and at the prescribed manner, time, and place.

No such application shall be made for the withdrawal of a petition until the prescribed notice has been given in the county or borough to which the petition relates of the intention of the petitioner to make an application for the withdrawal of his petition.

On the hearing of the application for withdrawal any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election to which the petition relates may apply to the court or judge to be substituted as a petitioner for the petitioner so desirous of withdrawing the petition.

The court or judge may, if it or he think fit, substitute as a petitioner any such applicant as aforesaid; and may further if the proposed withdrawal is in the opinion of the court or judge induced by any corrupt bargain or consideration, by order direct that the security given on behalf of the original petitioner shall remain as security for any costs that may be incurred by the substituted petitioner and that to the extent of the sum named in such security the original petitioner shall be liable to pay the costs of the substituted petitioner.

If no such order is made with respect to the security given on behalf of the original petitioner, security to the same amount as would be required in the case of a new petition, and subject to the like conditions, shall be given on behalf of the substituted petitioner before he proceeds with his petition, and within the prescribed time after the order of substitution.

Subject as aforesaid a substituted petitioner shall stand in the same position as nearly as may be, and be subject to the same liabilities as the original petitioner.

If a petition is withdrawn, the petitioner shall be liable to pay the costs of the respondent.

Where there are more petitioners than one, no application to withdraw a petition shall be made except with the consent of all the petitioners.

XXXVI. In every case of the withdrawal of an election petition under this Act the court or judge shall report to the Speaker whether in its or his opinion the withdrawal of such petition was the result of any corrupt arrangement, or in consideration of the withdrawal of any other petition, and if so the circumstances attending the withdrawal.

XXXVII. An election petition under this Act shall be abated by the death of a sole petitioner or of the suvivor of several petitioners.

The abatement of a petition shall not affect the liability of the petitioner to the payment of costs previously incurred.

The abatement of a petition the prescribed notice of such abatement having taken place shall be given in the county or borough to which the petition relates, and within the prescribed time after the notice is given, any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election to which the petition relates may apply to the court or judge in and at the prescribed manner, time, and place, to be substituted as a petitioner.

The court or judge may, if it or he think fit, substitute as a petitioner any such applicant who is desirous of being substituted and on whose behalf security to the same amount is given as is required in the case of a new petition.

XXXVIII. If before the trial of any election petition under this Act any of the following events happen in the case of the respondent; (that is to say,)

(1.) If he dies:

(2.) If he is summoned to Parliament as a peer of Great Britain by a writ issued under the great seal of Great Britain:

(3.) If the House of Commons have resolved that his seat is vacant:

(4.) If he gives in and at the prescribed manner and time notice to the court that he does not intend to oppose the petition:

Notice of such event having taken place shall be given in the county or borough to which the petition relates, and within the prescribed time after the notice is given any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election to which the petition relates may apply to the court or judge to be admitted as a respondent to oppose the petition, and such person shall on such application be admitted accordingly, either with the respondent, if they be a respondent, or in place of the respondent; and any number of persons not exceeding three may be so admitted.

XXXIX. A respondent who has given the prescribed notice that he does not intend to oppose the petition shall not be allowed to appear or act as a party against such petition in any proceedings thereon, and shall not sit or vote in the House of Commons until the House of Commons has been informed of the report on the petition, and the court or judge shall in all cases in which such notice has been given in the prescribed time and manner report the same to the Speaker of the House of Commons.

XL. Where an election petition under this Act complains of a double return and the respondent has given notice to the prescribed officer that it is not his intention to oppose the petition, and no party has been admitted in pursuance of this Act to defend such return, then the petitioner if if there be no petition complaining of the other member returned on such double return, may withdraw his petition by notice addressed to the prescribed officer, and upon the receipt of such notice the prescribed officer shall report the fact of the withdrawal of such petition to the Speaker, and the House of Commons shall thereupon give the necessary directions for amending the said double return by taking off the file the indenture by which the respondent so declining to oppose the petition was returned, or otherwise as the case may require: provided always, that this section shall not apply to Ireland.

Costs.

XLI. All costs, charges, and expenses of and incidental to the presentation of a petition under this Act, and to the proceedings consequent thereon, with the exception of such costs, charges, and expenses as are by this Act otherwise provided for, shall be defrayed by the parties to the petition in such manner and in such proportions as the court or judge may determine, regard being had to the disallowance of any costs, charges, or expenses which may in the opinion of the court or judge have been caused by vexatious conduct, unfounded allegations, or unfounded objections the part either of the petitioner or the respondent, and regard being had to the discouragement of any needless expense by throwing the burden of defraying the same on the parties by whom it has been caused, whether such parties are or not on the whole successful.

The costs may be taxed in the prescribed manner but according to the same principles as costs between attorney and client are taxed in a suit in the High Court of Chancery, and such costs may be recovered in the same manner as the costs of an action at law, or in such other manner as may be prescribed.

XLII. If any petitioner in an election petition presented under this Act neglect or refuse for the space of six months after demand to pay to any person summoned as a witness on his behalf, or to the respondent any sum certified to be due to him for his costs, charges, and expenses, and if such neglect or refusal be, within one year after such demand, proved to the satisfaction of the court of elections, in every such case every person who has entered into a recognizance relating to such petition under the provisions of this Act shall be held to have made default in his said recognizance, and the prescribed officer shall thereupon certify such recognizance to be forfeited, and the same shall be dealt with in England in manner provided by the Act of the third year of the reign of King George the fourth, chapter forty-six, and in Ireland in manner provided by " The fines Act (Ireland), 1851."

Punishment of corrupt Practices.

XLIII. Where it is found, by the report of the judge upon an election petition under this Act, that bribery has been committed by or with the knowledge and consent of any candidate at an election, such candidate shall be deemed to have been personally guilty of bribery at such election, and his election, if he has been elected, shall be void, and he shall be incapable of being elected to and of sitting in the House of Commons duriug the seven years next after the date of his being found guilty ; and he shall further be incapable during the said period of seven years—election, any person knowing that such person has within seven years previous to such engagement been found guilty of any corrupt practice by any competent legal tribunal, or been reported guilty of any corrupt practice by a committee of the House of Commons, or by the report of the judge upon an election petition under this Act, or by the report of commissioners appointed in pursuance of the Act of the session of the fifteenth and sixteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter fifty-seven, the election of such candidate shall be void.

XLV. Any person, other than a candidate, found guilty of bribery in any proceeding in which after notice of the charge he has had an opportunity of being heard, shall, during the seven years next after the time at which he is so found guilty, be incapable of being elected to and sitting in Parliament; and also be incapable—

(1.) Of being registered as a voter and voting at any election in the united kingdom; and

(3.) Of holding any judicial office, and of being appointed and of acting as a justice of the peace.

XLVI. For the purpose of disqualifying, in pursuance of the thirty-sixth section of "The Corrupt Practices Prevention Act, 1854," a member guilty of corrupt practices, other than personal bribery within the forty-third section of this Act, the report of the judge on the trial of an election petition shall be deemed to be substituted for the declaration of an election committee and the said section shall be construed as if the words "reported by a judge on the trial of an election petition" were inserted therein in the place of the words "declared by an election committee."

XLVII. If at any time after any person hs become disqualified by virtue of this Act, the witnesses, or any of them, on whose testimony such person shall have so become disqualified, shall, upon the prosecution of such person, be convicted of perjury in respect of such testimony, it shall be lawful for such person to move the Court to order, and the Court shall, upon being satisfied that such disqualification was procured by reason of perjury, order, that such disqualification shall thenceforth cease and determine, and the same shall cease and determine accordingly.

Whereas it is expedient to amend the law relating to offices of profit the acceptance of which from the crown vacates the seats of members accepting the same, but does not render them incapable of being re-elected: Be it enacted, That where a person has been returned as a member to serve in parliament since the acceptance by him from the crown of any office described in Schedule (H.) to this Act annexed, the subsequent acceptance by him from the crown of any other office or offices described in such schedule in lieu of and in immediate succession the one to the other shall not vacate his seat.

LIII. Any copy of any of the said reports by the said commissioners appointed for the purpose of making inquiry into the existence of corrupt practices in any of the said boroughs of Totnes, Great Yarmouth, Lancaster, or Reigate, with the schedules thereof annexed, and purporting to be printed by the Queen's printer, shall for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be sufficient evidence of any such report of the said commissioners and of the schedules annexed thereto.

LIV. Where separate registers of voters have been directed to be made in respect of the divisions of the borough and counties divided by this act into two divisions only, if a vacancy takes place in the representation of the said county or borough before a summoning of a future Parliament, and after the completion of such separate register, such last-mentioned registers shall for the purpose of any election to fill up such vacancy, be deemed together to form the register for the borough or county and in the case of a county divided into more than two divisions the clerk of the peace shall, from the separate registers make out a register of voters for the county or original division of the county in which the election may be about to take place, in the same manner as if no new division or divisions of such county had been made by this Act.

LV. Nothing in this Act contained shall affect the rights of persons whose names are for the time being on the register of voters for any county in which the boroughs constituted by this act are situate to vote in any election for such county in respect of any vacancy that may take place before the summoning of a future Parliament, but after such summoning no person shall be entitled to be registered as a voter or to vote in any election for any such county who would not be entitled to be so registered or to vote in case the qualification held by him were situate in a borough other than one constituted by this Act.

In the case of a parish wholly or partly situate within the limits of a borough constituted by this Act, the revising barrister in revising at any time before the summoning of a future parliament the list of voters for the county in which such parish is situate shall write the word "borough" opposite to the name of each voter whose qualification in respect of the premises described in the list would not, after the summoning of a future parliament, entitle such voter to vote for the county and at any election taking place after the summoning of a future parliament the vote of every person against whose name the word "borough" is written, if tendered in respect of such qualification, shall be rejected by the returning officer.

LVI. The franchises conferred by this Act shall be in addition to and not in substitution for any existing franchises, but so that no person shall be entitled to vote for the same place in respect of more than one qualification; and, subject to the provisions of this Act, all laws, customs, and enactments now in force conferring any right to vote, or otherwise relating to the representation of the people in England and Wales, and the registration of persons entitled to vote, shall remain in full force, and shall apply, as nearly as circumstances admit, to any person hereby authorized to vote, and shall also apply to any constituency hereby authorized to return a member or members to Parliament as if it had heretofore returned such members to Parliament and to the franchises hereby conferred, and to the registers of voters hereby required to be formed.

LVII. From and after the passing of this Act, the county palatine of Lancaster shall cease to be a county palatine, in so far as respect to issue, direction, and transmission of writs for the election of members to serve in Parliament for any division of the said county or for any borough situate in the said county; and such writs may be issued under the same seal, be directed to the like officer, and transmitted in the like manner, under, to, and in which writs may be issued, directed, and transmitted in the case of divisions of counties and boroughs not forming part of or situate in a county palatine; and any writ issued, directed, and transmitted in manner directed by this section shall be valid accordingly.

LVIII. All writs to be issued for the election of members to serve in parliament, and all mandates, precepts, instruments, proceedings, and notices consequent upon such writs or relating to the registration of voters, shall be framed and expressed in such manner and form as may be necessary for the carrying the provisions of this Act into effect.

LIX. This Act, so far as is consistent with the tenor thereof, shall be construed as one with the enactments for the time being in force relating to the representation of the people and with the registration Acts; and in construing the provisions of the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth sections of the act of the second year of king William the fourth, chapter forty-five, the expressions " the provisions herein-after contained, " and " as aforesaid, " shall be deemed to refer to the provisions of this Act conferring rights to vote as well as to the provisions of the said Act.

LX. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, in the event of a vacancy in the representation of any constituency, or of a dissolution of Parliament taking place, and a writ or writs being issued, before the First day of January, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, for the election of members to serve in the present or any new Parliament, each election shall take place in the same manner in all respects as if no alteration had been made by this Act in the franchises of electors, or in the places authorized to return a member or members to serve in Parliament, with this exception, that the boroughs by this Act disfranchised shall not be entitled to return members to serve in any such new Parliament.

LXI. The following terms shall in this Act have the meanings herein-after assigned to them, unless there is something in the context repugnant to such construction ; (that is to say,)

" Month " shall mean calendar month :

" Member" shall include a knight of the shire :

Amendment of the Representation of the People Act, 1867.

XVII. Whereas by the first enactment contained in the thirtieth section of the Representation of the People Act, 1867, it is enacted, that "the "overseers of every parish or township shall make out or cause to be "made out a list of all persons on whom a right to vote for a county in "respect of the occupation of premises is conferred by this Act, in the "same manner and subject to the same regulations, as nearly as circum-"stances admit, in and subject to which the overseers of parishes and "Townships in Boroughs are required by the registration Acts to make "out or cause to be made out a list of all persons entitled to vote for a "member or members for a borough in respect of the occupation of "premises of a clear yearly value of not less than ten pounds :"
And whereas by the fifty-ninth section of the same Act it is further provided that the said Representation of the People Act, 1867, so far as is consistant with the tenor thereof, shall be construed as one with the registration Acts: And whereas doubts are entertained, notwithstanding the said provisions, whether the fifteenth section of the principle Act, relating to the claims of persons omitted from borough lists of voters, or desirous of being registered in respect of a different qualification from that appearing in such lists, does or does not apply with the necessary variations to the rectification of the lists of county voters to be made in pursuance of the said enactment: It is hereby declared, that the said fifteenth section of the principal Act shall apply to the list of persons on whom a right to vote for a county in respect of the occupation of premises is conferred by the Representation of the People Act, 1867 in the same manner as if the list of voters in the said fifteenth section referred to were the list of voters made in pursuance of the enactment contained in the thirtieth section of the representation of the people Act instead of the list of voters for a city or borough as specified in the said fifteenth section.

XVIII. Where a municipal borough forms part of a parliamentary borough the town clerk of such municipal borough shall be deemed to be the town clerk within the meaning of the thirty-fourth section of the representation of the people Act, 1867, and the Acts relating to registration.

The local authority within the meaning of the same section, in boroughs where the town council is not the local authority, shall be the Justices of the Peace of the Petty Sessional Division in which such borough is situate, or if such borough be situate in or comprise more than one Petty Sessional Division then the Justices in general or quarter sessions having Jurisdiction over such Borough or the greater part thereof in area.

The power of dividing their county into polling districts, and assigning to each district a polling place, vested in the Justices of the Peace by the said thirty-fourth section of the Representation of the People Act, 1867, may be exercised by such Justices from time to time and as often as they think fit; and the said power of dividing a county into polling districts shall be deemed to include the power of altering any polling district or polling districts.

XIX. In the lists and register of voters for a county the names of the persons in any parish or township on whom a right to vote for a county in respect of the occupation of premises in such parish or township is conferred by the Representation of the People Act, 1867, shall appear in a separate list after the list of voters in such parish or township otherwise qualified, and such separate list shall be deemed to be part of the lists of county voters of such parish or township, and shall be annually made anew by the overseers of such parish or township, subject to this proviso, that the revising barrister shall erase from the separate list of such occupiers as aforesaid all persons who appear to him from the accompanying lists to be entitled to vote in the same polling district in respect of some other qualification to which no objection is made, except in cases where any person whose name is about to be erased object to the erasure, in which case such person shall be deemed to have given due notice of his claim to have his name inserted in the list of occupiers, and shall be dealt with accordingly.

XX. Notwithstanding anything contained in the thirtieth section of the Representation of the People Act, 1867, andthe thirty-eight section of the principal Act therein referred to, the names of the persons in any parish or township on whom a right to vote for a member or members to serve for any borough in respect of the occupation of lodgings is conferred by the Representation of the People Act, 1867 shall, in lists and registers of voters for such boroughs, appear in a separate list.

XXI. Section fifty seven of the Representation of the People Act, 1867, with respect to the county palatine of Lancaster, and the issue, direction, and transmission of writs for the election of members to serve in parliament for any division of the said county or for any borough situate therein, shall be construed to extend to and include the county palatine of Durham.

XXII. Where any parish in a county, city or borough forms part of more than one polling district the part of such parish situate in each polling district shall be deemed to be a separate parish for the purposes of the revision of voters and the lists and register of voters, and may be designated by some distinguishing addition in the list of voters for such part of a parish.

XXIII. Whereas it is expedient to provide a summary remedy for the recovery by town clerks and returning officers of sums of money due to them in respect of expenses incurred in pursuance of the Registration Acts be it enacted, that if the overseers of any parish or township refuse or neglect to pay to the town clerk or returning officer of any borough, out of the first monies to be collected or the relief of the poor, any contribution or sum required to be paid to him by the fifty-fifth section of the principal Act, or any Act amending the same or any part of such contribution or sum, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the peace for the county or place within which such parish or township is wholly or in part situate, upon information and complaint in writing, and after seven days notice in writing to be served upon such overseers or one of them, by warrant under his hand to levy such contribution or sum by distress and sale of the goods of the offender or offenders, together with all costs occasioned by the making of such complaint, service of such summons and the obtaining and executing such warrant.

XXIV. The third section of the said Act of the session of the fifth and sixth years of King William the Fourth, chapter 36, shall be repealed, and instead thereof be it enacted, "that the polling booths at each " polling place shall be so divided and arranged in compartments by the " Sheriff or other returning officer that not more than five hundred " electors shall be alloted to poll in each compartment.

XXV. Where a borough is situated partly in one circuit and partly in another, the Judge of the circuit in which the greater part in extent of such borough is situate shall appoint the revising barrister for such borough.

XXVI. If, in pursuance of any Act passed during the last or present session of parliament any alteration is made affecting the divisions of any county the clerk of the peace of such county or the revising barrister shall amend any copies of registers, lists, claims, or objections submitted to him in such manner as to make the same conformable to the alterations so made by Act of parliament.

If the Justices of the peace in any county have by any order of session made before such Act was passed divided such county into polling districts, and assigned to each district a polling place, and named the polling places at which the revising barristers are to hold their courts, such order shall be as valid to all intents and purposes as if it had been made after the passing of such Act.

XXVII. From and after the passing of this Act a returning officer shall be annually appointed for the borough of Thirsk in the manner provided by the eleventh section of the Act of the second year of the reign of his late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter forty-five, in the case of the boroughs mentioned in schedules C. and D. annexed to the said Act, for which no persons are mentioned in such schedules as returning officers and the person so appointed shall perform all the duties and be entitled to the remuneration which a returning officer is, by the registration Acts, required to perform and is entitled to in boroughs where there is no town clerk.

XXVIII. The overseers of every parish or township shall produce to the barrister appointed to revise the lists of voters of any county, whilst holding his court for revising the lists relating to their parish or township, all rates made for the relief of the poor of their parish or township between the fifth day of January in the year then last past and the last day of July in the then present year; and any overseer wilfully refusing or neglecting to produce any such rates shall be deemed wilfully guilty of a breach of duty in the execution of the principal Act, and be punishable accordingly.

XXIX. The barrister appointed to revise the lists of voters of any county, whilst holding his court for revising the lists relating to a parish or township, may require any overseer or overseers of a past year, or other person having the custody of any poor rate of the then current or any past year, or any relieving officer, to attend before him any such court and they shall attend accordingly and answer all such questions as may be put to them by the barrister; and any overseer or relieving officer wilfully refusing or neglecting to comply with the requirements authorized to be made by the revising barrister in pursuance of this section shall be punishable in the same manner in which an overseer wilfully guilty of a breach of duty in the execution of the principal Act, is punishable under the principal Act.

XXX. The thirtieth section of the Act of the session of the second year of King William the fourth, chapter forty-five, and the seventy-fifth section of the principal Act, shall apply to all occupiers of premises capable of conferring the franchise for a county under the Representation of the People Act, 1867.

The new Act provides that on or before June 10, in every year (§ 2) the clerk of the peace is to cause to be delivered to the overseers of the poor, his precept according to a specified form, with notices, list and copies of the register of the county voters for the parish or township, and the overseers (§ 3), on or before June 20, are to publish, by affixing such lists and notices on church and chapel doors, public places, &c., such list to remain for at least two Sundays; but to be removed before July 20; August 20, instead of the 25th as in former Acts, is to be the last day (§ 4) for giving notices of objections to overseers and to the person objected to; and Sept. 1 (§ 5) the last day for returning the lists with claims and objections to the clerk of the peace. The grounds of objection (§ 6) are to be specifically stated, and if the objection be grounded on more than one column of the registration list, each objection must be stated separately. No person objected to (§ 7) is to be required to give evidence before the revising barrister in support of his right otherwise than as such right is called in question by the objection*; each separate ground of objection (§ 8) to be treated separately by the revising barrister, and for every ground of objection which may have been groundlessly or frivolously stated, he may award cost against the objector to the amount of at least 2*s.* 6*d.*, although the name may be expunged on some other ground. Notices of objection (§ 9) may be sent by post, pre-paid, as provided in § 100 of the previous Act. No court (§ 12) to be held by any revising barrister before Sept. 20. Every order for costs (§ 13) whether in revising the lists of county, city, or borough voters, in the case of an objection, to be made before proceedings to hear any other ground of objections; the sum ordered to be paid (§ 14) is not to exceed the sum of £.5 on any one vote. 4. That the voting paper bears date anterior to notice given by the returning officer of the day for proceeding to election:

An Act to amend the Law relating to the use of Voting Papers in Elections for the Universities. 31*st July*, 1868

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session holden in the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, chapter fifty-three intituled An Act to provide that Votes at Elections for the Universities may be recorded by means of voting papers, it is provided that at the Elections for burgesses to serve in Parliament for the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, and Dublin Votes may be given by means of voting papers; but it is by the said Act provided that no Voting Paper shall be received or recorded unless the person tendering the same shall make the following Declaration, which he shall sign at the Foot or Back thereof:

"I solemnly declare that I am personally acquainted with A.B. [the 'Voter], and I verily believe that this is the paper by which he intends to vote, pursuant to the provisions of the Universities Election Act."

And whereas by virtue of the Representation of the People Act, 1867 the said first-mentioned Act applies to every election of a member for the University of London.

And whereas it is expedient to amend the said first-mentioned Act so far as respects the said recited declaration:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords spiritual and temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same as follows:

I. From and after the passing of this Act the said recited form of declaration shall not be required, and there shall be substituted in place thereof the form of declaration following; that is to say,—

"I solemnly declare that I verily believe that this is the paper by which A.B. [the voter] intends to vote pursuant to the provisions of the 'Universities Election Acts 1861 and 1868.'"

II. the second section of the said first-mentioned Act shall, in reference to the university of London, be construed as if the words 'in the manner heretofore used' were omitted therefrom.

III. A voting paper for the election of any burgess or member to serve in parliament for any universities or university in respect of which the provisions of the said first mentioned Act may for the time being be in force, may be signed by a voter being in one of the Channel Islands in the presence of the following officers; that is to say,

1. In Jersey and Guernsey, of the Bailiffs or any Lieutenant Bailiff, Jurat, or Juge d'Instruction.
2. In Alderney, of the Judge of Alderney, or any Jurat.
3. In Sark, of the seneschal or deputy seneschal.

And for the purpose of certifying and attesting the signature of such voting paper, each of the said officers shall have all the powers of a justice of the peace under the first-mentioned Act, and a statement of the official quality of such officer shall be a sufficient statement of quality in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act.

IV. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Universities elections Act, 1868," and the said first-mentioned Act and this Act may be cited together as "The University Election Act, 1861 and 1868."

I. ON THE QUALIFICATION OF COUNTY ELECTORS.

Partnership Shares in Freehold.

Several persons joined in a partnership, to carry on trade in a fulling mill. Money was subscribed by all the partners, with part of which freehold land was bought, which was conveyed to trustees; with the other part, a mill was built on this land, and machinery for the mill was purchased. By a partnership deed, executed by the trustees and all the partners, the trusts of the land, mill, &c. were declared to be (among others), that the trustees should stand seised and possessed of all the estates, property, goods, &c. upon trust, for the benefit of themselves and their partners, as part of their partnership joint stock in trade. There was a provision in the deed, that the trustees might borrow money, upon mortgage of the stock, property, estate, &c. belonging to the copartnership; and it was declared that the land, mill, &c. should be deemed and considered as, or in the nature of, personal estate, and not real estate, and be held in trust for the partners, as part of their partnership stock in trade. The trustees had, under the power of the deed, borrowed money, for the purposes of the partnership, for which they had given bonds and notes, in their own names, not having mortgaged any part of the partnership property. Held, That each partner had an interest in realty, and having an amount of shares sufficient for the purpose, was entitled to vote for the county. Held also, That the money, borrowed by the trustees, had not the effect of mortgages on the shares of the partners. Baxter, Appellant, Newman, Respondent; B. & A. p. 493.—LUT. Vol. I. p. 287.

Shareholders in Incorporated Joint Stock Companies.

Shareholders in Joint Stock Companies incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies' Acts, have no freehold estate, legal or equitable, in any lands held by the Corporation to entitle them to vote in counties. Bulmer and Norris. K. & G. p. 321.

Individual Corporators.

So also individual corporators of a Corporation at common law which is seised in fee simple of freehold lands, are not entitled to be registered in respect of their interests or shares in the profits of the Company. Acland and Lewis. K. & G. p. 334.

Unincorporated Joint Stock Companies.

Whether shareholders in an Unincorporated Company, possessing and using land as an instrument of profit, have such an interest therein as to entitle them to be registered, depends upon the form of their deed. If under the deed they take only an interest in the joint stock and net profits, the land being held by trustees and managed by a committee, they have not such an estate at law or in equity as to entitle them to vote. Bennett and Blain. H. & P. vol. I. p. 35.

Multiplication of Voices—The Splitting Act.

7th and 8th William III., cap. 25. "All conveyances of any messuages, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, in any county, city, borough, &c. in order to multiply voices, or to split and divide the interest in any houses or lands among several persons, to enable them to vote at elections of Members to serve in Parliament, are hereby declared to be void and of none effect; and that no more than one single voice shall be admitted for one and the same house or tenement."

To render a conveyance void under the above statute, the seller must be party or privy to the illegal object intended by the conveyance. Marshall and Bown. Lut. I. p. 278. B. & A. p. 445.

A boná fide purchase of land, for a valuable consideration, is not void, though the object of the vendees is to multiply voices, and that is known to the agent of the vendor, but not to the vendor himself. Hoyland and Bremner. Lut. 1. p. 381. B. & A. p. 611.

A conveyance, made in completion of a boná fide contract of sale, where the money is paid and possession given, there being no secret reservation or trust for the benefit of the vendor, is not within the statute, though the object of both vendor and vendees was the multiplication of voices. Alexander and Newman. Lut. I. p. 404. B. & A. p. 657.

Nor a boná fide conveyance, from father to son, made "in consideration of natural love and affection." Newton and Hargreaves. Lut. I. p. 424. B. & A. p. 690.

Whether there has been fraud in fact in making a conveyance, in order to multiply voices, is a question for the determination of the Revising Barrister. Newton and Overseers of Mobberly. Lut. I. p. 427. B. & A. p. 695.

Freehold presumed from Possession.

Tenements, held by burgage tenure, in the ancient borough of Kendal, it not being shewn that the freehold is in another, entitle the holder in possession to vote for the county. Busher and Thomas. Lut. I. p. 551.

Freeholds for Life,—Charities.

The bedesmen of Lord Burghley's Hospital, Stamford Baron, Northampton, are entitled to be registered, as having equitable estates of freehold in their respective rooms. Simpson and Wilkinson. LUT. I. p. 168. B. & A. p. 308.

The inmates of Jesus Hospital, Rothwell, Northampton, are not entitled to vote for the county, as their respective estates or interests are held during the pleasure of the governors, according to the by-laws, made under the powers of letters patent, dated 38th Elizabeth. Davis and Waddington. LUT. I. p. 159. B. & A. p. 299.

The inmates of Shrewsbury Hospital, Sheffield, are not entitled to be registered for the county of Nottingham, not having equitable estates of sufficient value therein to confer the franchise; and held, by Erle, J., that they have no equitable estate in land, but only an interest in money. Ashmore and Lees. LUT. I. p. 337. B. & A. p. 554.

The "Beadsmen of Daventry" have equitable estates in land, but not to the value of 10*l.* per annum each, and are not entitled to be registered as holding any "benefice or office," within the meaning of the 18 s. of 2nd William IV., cap. 45. K. & G. p. 132.

The fellows of Lincoln College, Oxford, are not entitled to be registered for the county of Durham, inasmuch as the annual value of their equitable estates in land, within that county, is not 10*l.* and they do not come within the exception of the 18 s. of the Reform Act, as coming to an estate by devise, or holding a benefice or office. West and Robson, K. & G. p. 141.

The members of the Hospital of Gilbert, Earl of Shrewsbury, at Sheffield, have neither a legal nor an equitable freehold interest in the rooms occupied by them, and are not entitled to vote for the county. Freeman and Gainsford. K. & G. p. 448.

The preachers and lay clerks and bell ringer of Canterbury Cathedral have not an interest in land to entitle them to vote for the county in respect of their stipend paid out of the Cathedral fund, derived wholly or in part from land. Hall and Lewis. K. & G. p. 499.

Copyhold.

Case of "Customary tenure" qualification, described in List as "Copyhold." Garbutt and Trevor. H. & P. vol. I. p. 69.

Equitable Estate, Cestui que Trust.

A. purchased certain plots of freehold land, of sufficient value to confer the franchise, for which he paid the whole of the purchase money, but the conveyance to him, at his own request, had not been made. The land was unlet, and he had not in any way taken possession, or exercised the rights of ownership upon it. Held, That he was not entitled to be registered, as the cestui que trust "in actual possession, or in receipt of the rents and profits." Anelay and Lewis. K. & G. p. 47.

Dissenting Minister.

The minister of a dissenting congregation occupied a house and garden, the legal estate in fee being vested by deed in trustees, in trust, "to permit the minister, for the time being, to reside in the premises for the time being." The evidence of the minister's appointment was his own statement, that it was general, and for life. Held, That as the Barrister had admitted that evidence, the appointment must be taken to have been made for life, and that the minister had an equitable estate of freehold. Burton and Brooks. LUT. II. p. 197.

In the case of a dissenting minister in the parish of Downton, Wilts, the revising barrister did not infer from similar facts presented, that the appointment was for life, and the Court confirmed his decision, as the facts did not lead necessarily to the inference that the appointment was for life. Collier and King. K. & G. p. 385.

Parish Clerk.

W. M. B. was appointed parish clerk to be held for life, part of the emolument of which office was part of an ancient due upon the opening of every grave in the churchyard of the parish. Held, not to have an interest in the freehold, and that the fee for assisting at funerals is not analogous to those profits that are issuing from the land. Bushell and Eastes. K. & G. p. 484.

Freehold Land Societies,—Mortgagor in Possession. Value above all Rents and Charges.

Two plots of land were conveyed in fee to W. A. for a consideration of 150*l.* The plots were eligible for building purposes, and would, if let, produce 15*l.* per annum, but for other purposes would not yield 40*s.* per annum. No building had been erected thereon, and the land had remained in the claimant's possession wholly unproductive. It was therefore objected that the claimant had not "free land, to the value of 40*s.* by the year," to expend, within the statute 8th Henry VI. cap. 7. Held, That the annual value of the estate was 40*s.*, either by the fact of its purchaseable value being 150*l.* or that it would, if let for its most fitting purpose, yield a rent of 15*l.* Astbury and Henderson. K. & G. p. 6.

Monthly payments to a building society, including principal and interest, secured by mortgage upon the estate, are in the nature of a charge thereon to their full extent, and if they diminish the value to the owner below 40*s.* per annum he is not entitled to be registered. Copeland and Bartlett. LUT. 2, p. 102.

Land of the annual value of £.3 was mortgaged to a building society for £.73 to secure monthly payments amounting to £.4 annually; by the 31st of January £.71 had been paid off, leaving only £.2 to pay. Court confirmed decision of the Revising Barrister that the claimant had an interest in the land that amounted in value to 40*s.* per annum. Robinson and Dunkley. H. & P. vol. I. p. 1.

Land was mortgaged to secure the repayment of a principal sum within a time which had expired at the holding of the revision, but the land was not charged with payment of interest on the loan, though the claimant was personally liable for it. Held, That the claimant did not derive 40*s.* by the year to expend above all charges, and that whether the interest be charged by deed or not, it is a charge upon the estate within the letter and spirit of the 8 Hen. VI. and 28 Geo. III. c. 36. Lee and Hutchinson. LUT. 2, p. 150.

All payments to a building society secured upon an estate, whether they be in respect of principal and interest, or for incidental expenses, are in the nature of charges thereon, and thereby reduce the value to the owner; and although the mortgagor may be in actual possession, and in the receipt of the rents and profits of the estate, he is not entitled to be registered if he do not derive 40*s.* per annum over and above such payments. Beamish and Overseers of Stoke. LUT. 2, p. 189.

Land worth £.5 per annum was mortgaged with other land belonging to the claimant, to secure the repayment of a sum of £.300 and 5 per cent. interest, being £.15 per annum. Held, That the mortgage interest was apportionable, and that the claimant, having an interest above 40*s.* per annum in the land worth £.5, was entitled to vote. Moore and Carsbrooke. LUT. 2, p. 233.

Part of a plot of land subject to a chief rent of £.14 1*s.* 7*d.* was conveyed in fee to ten persons as tenants in common, subject to the payment of £.4 5*s.* as their portion of the chief rent, the grantors covenanting to pay the remainder. Held, That the rent could be apportioned, and that "it is not what charges the land is legally liable to in the first instance, but what, in the result, the claimant to a vote in respect of it would be able to expend." Barrow and Buckmaster. LUT. 2, p. 235.

Where the owner of the freehold pays all the rates and taxes, the gross rent is not the criterion of value to the owner; but the annual amount of such rates and taxes must be deducted, and if it reduces the value to the owner below 40*s.* he is not entitled to be registered. Moorhouse and Gilbertson. LUT. 2, p. 260.

Where also it was necessary to expend an annual sum in repairs to maintain the gross rent received, Held, That the value was reduced by such annual payment. Hamilton and Bass. LUT. 2, p. 213.

So, also, where it was found that an annual expenditure as commission for collecting the rents was necessary, it was held to be a "charge" reducing the value of the estate to the owners. Sherlock and Steward. K. & G. p. 297.

Freehold land in a Borough occupied by Owner.

Where the owner and occupier of freehold land within a borough also occupies "as tenant" a house therein, he is not disqualified from being registered in respect of the land for the county, though the house be of less than £.10 value. Capell and Overseers of Aston, and Burton and Overseers of Aston. LUT. 2, p. 143.

"Six months' actual possession."

The words "actual possession" mean a possession in fact as contradistinguished to a possession in law; and as the possession in fact of a rent charge, or other incorporeal hereditament, can be had only by the actual manual receipt of the rent itself, or some part of it, or something in lieu of it, so there could be no possession "for six months prior to the 31st of July," where nothing took place but the execution of the deed, and no rent was due until after that date. Murray and Thorniley. LUT. 1, p. 496; B. & A. p. 472; and Hayden and Overseers of Tiverton. LUT. 1, p. 510.

Customary Freehold.

A. had been for upwards of twenty years the owner in fee of a house and land above the annual value of 40*s.* but less than £.10. The property was situate in the manor of Digwell, at the Court Baron for which the claimant had acknowledged to hold the same house, &c. of the lord of the manor by free deed, fealty, suit of court, &c. and the payment of a yearly rent of 4*d*. No rent had ever been paid or demanded of him. The lord had by custom a right to compel the tenant to come in and acknowledge free tenure. Held, That the tenant had a freehold estate, and did not hold at the will of the lord or by copy of court roll, consequently, the value of the estate was sufficient to entitle the claimant to be registered. Passingham and Pitly. K. & G. p. 35.

Copyhold in a Borough.

A copyhold house of more than £.10 annual value will not entitle the owner to be registered for the county, though the same be let out in separate tenements each of less than £.10 annual value. Proctor and Annison. K. & G. p. 297.

Leasehold in a Borough.

The lessee of several houses comprised in one lease, the annual value of each house (with one exception) being less than ten pounds, is entitled to be registered for the county, notwithstanding that the occupier of the one house would be entitled to vote for the borough. Webb and Overseers of Aston. Lut. 1. p. 18. B. & A. p. 20.

Occupation "as Tenant."

The Committee to a lunatic's estate in the occupation of certain lands the produce of which he receives for his own use and benefit, but paying no rent for the same, is not entitled to be registered as a £.50 occupying tenant, though his name is returned in the accounts to chancery as the tenant of the land. Burton and Langham. Lut. 2. p. 78.

Occupation at a single rent.

The occupation of land under separate landlords at the respective rents of £.35 and £.20, will not entitle the occupier to be registered as a tenant paying a rent of £.50. Gadsby and Barrow. Lut. 1, p. 142. B. & A. p. 283.

II. ON THE QUALIFICATION OF CITY AND BOROUGH ELECTORS.

Rating and Payment of Rates and Taxes.

Where a rate bears upon its face the name of the occupier, the premises for which he is rated, the rateable value thereof, and the amount of the rate, such rating is sufficient, within the 27th section of the Reform Act; and the payment of the entire rate by any of the parties jointly rated, is a payment by each of the joint occupiers of his respective rate. Wright and The Town Clerk of Stockport. Lut. I. p. 32. B. & A. p. 39.

The occupier of the house, No. 3, Golden Lane, was by mistake rated as the occupier of No. 4. Under an agreement, the landlord of No. 3 paid all rates and taxes, the tenant paying an increased rent in consideration thereof. The landlord had paid all rates and taxes due, and the tenant all rent due. Held, That the tenant had been bonâ fide called upon to pay the rate, had bonâ fide paid it, and was rated within the meaning of the statute. Cook and Luckett. Lut. I. p. 432. B. & A. p. 666.

In consequence of a claim to be rated, the name of the occupying tenant of a house, for which the landlord was rated, was inserted in the rate book after the name of the landlord, but nothing appeared annexed thereto in the columns of the rate book. Held, That the tenant was sufficiently rated for the house; and that the question of rating should be determined by inspection of the rate, without any evidence of the intention with which it was made. Pariente and Luckett. LUT. I. p. 441. B. & A. 701.

A claimant, in respect of different premises occupied in immediate succession, is not bound to shew that he has been rated, by name, on the rate book for them, provided he has paid all the rates, to entitle him to vote. Rogers and Lewis. K. & G. p. 279.

A claim to be rated, under the statute 2nd William IV., cap. 45, is only good for the rate for the time being. Wansey and Perkins. LUT p. 249. B. & A. 402. By the statute 14th and 15th Victoriæ, cap. 14, however, subsequently passed, persons having once claimed to be rated in respect of premises, and paying or tendering the rates due, are not required to renew such claim.

An officer, in the service of the Government, occupying as such, rent free, a house belonging to the Government, in part remuneration for his services, is a tenant of such house, within the 27th section of the Reform Act; that such a tenant being rated, the rates being paid by the Government in part remuneration for the tenant's services, was liable for the rates, and that the payment was made on his account. Hughes and The Overseers of Chatham. LUT. I. p. 51. B. & A. p. 61.

Where no actual tender of rates due took place, at the time of giving a notice of claim to be rated, but the claimant asked "if there were any rates due?" and said, "if so, he was prepared to pay them," the Overseer replying, "I will see to it,"—Held, This was not a tender within the meaning of the statute. Bishop and Smedley. LUT I. p. 384.

All taxes due, whether previously demanded or not, must be paid, to be entitled to be registered. Ford and Smedley. LUT. II. p. 403.

Service of claim to be rated on Assistant Overseer, who had given notice of intention to resign. Caunter and Addams. H. & P. vol. I. p. 50.

Occupation "as Tenant," or "as Owner."

An officer, in the service of the Government, occupying, as such, a house, rent free, in part remuneration for his services, is a tenant of such house. Hughes and The Overseers of Chatham. LUT. I. p. 51. B. & A. 61.

The Surgeon of Greenwich Hospital is not entitled to be registered, in respect of the occupation of the apartments assigned to him, either as owner or tenant. Dobson and Jones. LUT. I. p. 105. B. & A. 243.

Nor are the Military Knights of Windsor, in respect of their residences. Heartley and Banks, K. G. p. 219.

Nor the Brethren of Leicester Hospital, in respect of their chambers. Heath and Haynes. K. & G. p. 99.

The lay clerks of Windsor have not the right of voting upon the facts stated in the case, as they do not shew an occupation either as owners or as tenants of the houses they have the option of occupying under their appointments. Bridgewater and Durrant. K. & G. p. 377.

If the occupation is as servant, it is not an occupation as tenant, though rent be paid. The hall-keeper of the Guildhall of B. is a servant of the Corporation, occupying premises belonging to the Corporation, for which he pays no rent, but pays the rates and taxes, residence being necessary to the discharge of his duties. Held, That he did not occupy as tenant. Clarke and The Overseers of St. Mary, Bury St. Edmunds. K. & G. p. 90.

Six persons, members of a political association, were joint lessees of a house, for which they alone were liable for the rent. There was no mention in the lease of the purposes for which the premises were to be used, but they were used by all the members of the Association, and the rent and servants' wages were paid out of its common funds. Held, That the lessees occupied the premises as tenants, and that the other members of the association were not in joint occupation of the premises. Luckett and Bright. LUT. I. p. 456. B. & A. p. 737.

A. being the lessee of a house and mill, took into partnership three persons, all of whom resided with A. upon the premises. Each paid one fourth of the expenses, and received one fourth of the profits, the rent to the lessor being paid out of the partnership funds. Held, That each was entitled to be registered in respect of the occupation, as tenant, of one undivided fourth part of the premises. Rogers and Harvey. K. & G. p. 169.

The Rating of Lodgers.

A house in Queen-street, Sunderland, contains six rooms, and each room is let to a separate tenant. Neither the landlord nor any one representing him resides on the premises. Previously to the passing of the Reform Act of 1867, the owner paid all rates: but since then the overseers have rated each occupier separately. The question was, whether this was right, and it depended upon the construction of the seventh section of the Act, which is in effect that where any dwelling-house or tenement shall be wholly let out in apartments or lodgings, not separately rated, then the owner shall be rated. The court unanimously held that the occupiers were not entitled to be severally rated, and that the rate should be made out in the name of the landlord.

The Claims of Women to Vote.

The revising barrister had expunged the names of 5,346 female claimants from the list, and the leading counsel for the appellant, contended that women had a right to the franchise, which they exercised in ancient times, and which modern legislation had not taken from them. The Lord Chief Justice and the other judges delivered separate judgments, and they all agreed that there was not sufficient authority for saying that by the common law women had had a right to vote for members of Parliament. In his (the Chief Justice's) opinion, the Reform Act of 1867, in saying that men should vote although considered in conjunction with Sir John Romilly's Act, did not entitle women to vote. The term men in the Reform Act did not include women: and even if it did, then women would come within the term "incapacitated." The decision of the revising barrister refusing the vote should be affirmed. Mr. Justice Byles said that he hoped that their unanimous decision, coupled with the unanimous decision of the Court of Session in Scotland, would for ever exercise and lay this ghost of a doubt which ought never to have risen.

Holding under the same Landlord.

The landlord of premises, demised from year to year to the claimant, during the demise, and before the 31st of July, sells a part of them to a third person. This does not destroy the claimant's right to vote, as holding under the same landlord during the period required. Smerdon and Tucker. K. & G. p. 305.

Meaning of "Other Building."

A room in a factory, being a distinct and separate portion thereof, is "a building," within the meaning of the statute 2nd William IV., cap. 45. Wright and The Town Clerk of Stockport. Lut. I. p. 32. B. & A. p. 39. So, also, two rooms in a house, over which the occupier had exclusive control. Toms and Luckett. Lut. II. p. 19.

A cow-house, substantially built of stone, with a tiled roof, having a door, with lock and key, and suitable for the purposes for which it is used, is a building within the meaning of the words, "other building." Whitmore and Town Clerk of Wenlock. Lut. I. p. 10.

A building, containing a ground floor used as a cow-house, and an upper chamber, having a fire-place and a window, furnished with a bed and chairs where a party resided and slept, is a "house" within the statute. Nunn and Denton. Lut. 1, p. 178. B. & A. p. 324.

A shed, standing against the wooden paling of a wharf, but not fastened thereto, having a tarpauling roof supported by six posts put into the ground, and one of its sides boarded up, used for putting barrows, hoops, &c. into, is a "building." Watson and Cotton. Lut. 2, p. 53.

A claimant cannot join together two separate buildings, in order to make up the value required to confer a vote for a city or borough under the 27th section of the Reform Act. Dewhurst and Fielden. Lut. 1, p. 274. B. & A. p. 439.

A house and shop, not within the same curtilage, cannot be joined together so as to make one entire qualification. Powell and Price. Lut. 1, p. 586.

A two-stalled stable with hay-loft over, annexed to which but at a lower elevation, is another brick building, to which again is annexed a wooden building divided into three compartments, all which, and the two brick buildings, open into the same yard, form one continuous structure under the same roof, and, therefore, constitute a "building." Pownall and Dawson. Lut. 2, p. 177. See also Joliffe and Rice. Lut 2, p. 90.

Part of a house without any actual severance used and occupied as a residence does not confer a title to vote, as the subject of the occupation is not "a house," but only "part of a house." Cook and Humber. K. & G. p. 413, and Wilson and Roberts, K. & G. p. 340.

Where the facts shewed an "actual severance," the premises constituted "a house" within the meaning of the Reform Act. Henrette and Booth. H. & P. vol. I. p. 23.

Building, and Land occupied "therewith."

"Therewith" refers to time and not to locality. Consequently, land at a distance from a building, if both be occupied during the qualifying period, by the same person as owner, or as tenant under the same landlord, may be valued with the building for the purpose of making up a borough qualification. Collins and Tewkesbury. Lut. 2, p. 217.

"Clear yearly value."

Whether premises are of the "clear yearly value of £.10" is a question of fact for the determination of the Revising Barrister. Per Erle, J. the fair principle in ascertaining the value is to inquire what the premises would let for to a tenant, and deduct therefrom what a tenant would ordinarily have to pay. Coogan and Luckett. Lut. 1, p. 447. B. & A. p. 716.

The fair annual rent of premises is the proper criterion of their "clear yearly value," without making any deductions for landlord's repairs or insurance. Colville and Wood. Lut. 1, p. 483. B. & A. p. 721.

Residing within seven miles.

A freeman resided with his wife and family, and carried on business at Gloucester, more than seven miles from Tewkesbury, but in order to obtain a vote for the borough, he paid 9*d.* per week for the use of a furnished bedroom and a closet at a friend's house at Tewkesbury. He had the key between January and July, during which time he slept in the bedroom twelve times, and in the course of the year between fifteen and twenty times, but he never took his meals in the house, except as a guest. Held, That he had not resided in Tewkesbury within the meaning of the statute. Whithorn and Thomas. Lut. 1, p. 125. B. & A. p. 259.

Place of abode no part of qualification.

The place of abode of a voter is no part of his qualification. Per Maule, J.—Luckett and Knowles. Lut. 1, p. 451. B. & A. 370.

Parochial Relief.

A Freeman excused from payment of poor rate on the ground of poverty, is not disqualified as having received parochial relief or alms, within the meaning of the 36th section of the Reform Act. Mashiter and Town Clerk of Lancaster. Lut. 2, p. 113.

M. S., on the list of voters for the borough of Northallerton, was called upon to shew cause before the Board of Guardians why he should not be ordered to maintain his father, a pauper in the workhouse, and he arranged to contribute 1*s.* 6*d.* per week towards his support, the parish bearing what other cost was entailed. Objected, that, as the son was legally bound to maintain his father, the cost borne by the parish was "parochial relief" to the son. The Revising Barrister held that the voter was not disqualified by the provisions of the 36th section of the Reform Act, and the Court confirmed the decision, without argument.—Trotter and Trevor. K. & G. p. 531.

To take the benefits of an Incorporated Charity as one entitled permanently to share in its revenues and advantages, is not a receiving of alms so as to disqualify from voting. Smith and Hall. H. & P. vol. I. p. 11.

Freemen and Liverymen of London.

Freemen and Liverymen of the City of London admitted to their freedom by purchase since the 1st of March, 1831, are entitled to be registered, notwithstanding the proviso in the 32nd section of the Reform Act, which applies only to Burgesses or Freemen in other cities or boroughs. Croucher and Browne. LUT. 1, p. 388. B. & A. p. 621.

Voters in respect of reserved rights of voting.

To entitle a person to vote as an inhabitant householder, potwaller, or scot and lot voter under the Reform Act, he must retain the identical qualification which he had when that statute passed. Jeffrey and Kitchener. LUT. 1, p. 210. B. & A. p. 359.

III. ON THE REGISTRATION OF ELECTORS.

Notice of Claim,—Signature of Claimant.

A notice of claim need not necessarily bear the personal signature of the claimant, if it be signed in his name; and should the Overseers accept the notice, by publishing the name in the list of claimants, no objection can be raised before the Revising Barrister as to the validity of the notice. Davis and Hopkins. K. & G. p. 118.

Signature of Overseers to Lists.

A list duly made by the Overseers and delivered to the Revising Barrister, but not signed by all, or a majority, of the Overseers, is not invalidated by such want of signature. Morgan and Parry. K. & G. p. 57.

Voter's description in Lists.

A qualification in respect of the fifty-first part of a fee-farm rent is sufficiently described in the third column by the words "freehold fee-farm." Cooper and Ashfield. K. & G. p. 200.

Whether the description of a qualification in the register is sufficient for the purpose of being identified, is a question of fact for the determination of the Revising Barrister, and his decision thereon conclusive. Wood and Overseers of Willesden. LUT. I. p. 314. B. & A. p. 527.

A claimant, having no fixed place of abode, and for several years having been travelling abroad, stated his "place of abode" as "travelling abroad:" Held sufficient. Walker and Payne. LUT. I. p. 324. B. & A. p. 541.

The place of abode of a voter is no part of his qualification, and can be amended by the Revising Barrister under the 40th section of the Registration Act. Borough Case. Luckett and Knowles. LUT. I. p. 451. B. & A. p. 730.

The nature of a qualification described as "£.50 occupier," should have been corrected by the Revising Barrister to "farm as occupier," and the claimant's name not expunged from the list. Howitt and Stephens. K. & G. p. 183.

The qualification of W. B., the occupier of a farm for which he was liable to a rent of £.50, was described in the register as "tenant" only. Held, that the Revising Barrister had power to correct the description, as the word "tenant" sufficiently pointed out the class of qualification intended. Birks and Allison. K. & G. 507.

The word "or," in the heading to the fourth column of a notice of claim is disjunctive, and creates three different descriptions; in giving the situation of a qualifying property it is sufficient that it be brought within any one of them, viz. "If the house is situate in a street, lane, or other like place, the street or lane should be mentioned, and if the houses are numbered, the number also should be given; but that if the house and premises are not in a street or lane, or other like place, but in a road, or on a common, or the like, then the name of the property should be given, if known by any, or the name of the occupying tenant." Eckersley and Barker. LUT. I. p. 190. B. & A. p. 334.

A county voter whose right to vote depends upon the successive occupation of land, must send in a new claim describing the lands occupied in immediate succession. A. was described on the register as the "occupier of land above £.50,"—"own occupation;" within the qualifying period he changed his occupation for other land within the same parish: Held, That he did not retain the same qualification. Burton and Grey. LUT. II. p. 4.

When the qualification is in respect of the occupation of two houses in immediate succession, the situation of both must be set forth in the list. The Barrister cannot supply an omission herein under the 40th section. Bartlett and Gibbs. LUT. I. p. 73. B. & A. p. 98; and Onions and Bowdler. LUT. II. p. 59.

If the houses occupied in immediate succession be numbered the numbers must be given. Per Erle, J. That if the numbers had been supplied the Barrister ought to have inserted them. Flounders and Donner. LUT. I. p. 365.

Where a borough qualification was in respect of the occupation of two houses in succession, and described in the third column as "house," the situation of both the houses being given in the fourth, it was held to be a sufficient description, or, at all events, one that the Revising Barrister could correct to "houses occupied in immediate succession." Hitchins and Brown. LUT. I. p. 328. B. & A. p. 545.

In stating the nature of a voter's qualification in a city or borough, when the right of voting depends on property, it is only necessary to describe the property which gives the qualification, and not its incidents. Where, therefore, a party occupied a house and shop, jointly with another person, Held, That it was not necessary to state the fact of the joint occupation. Daniel and Camplin. LUT. I. p. 264. B. & A. 425.

A building, calculated for and once used as a dwelling-house, occupied by a tenant partly for warehousing goods, partly as a sale room, and the up-stairs apartments being used as workshops, is properly described as a "house." Daniel and Coulsting. LUT. I. p. 230. B. & A. 380.

"Part of a house," is a sufficient description of the nature of qualification of a borough voter, claiming in respect of the occupation of a portion of a house. Judson and Luckett. LUT. I. p. 490. B. & A. p. 707. See Cook and Humber. K. & G. p. 413.

A lessee was possessed of a leasehold interest for more than sixty years in two houses in Manchester, and previous to the Act of 1867 he had voted for South-east Lancashire, because neither of his tenants being rated at so much as £.10 could vote for the city. Under the Act of 1867, however, the tenants were entitled to vote as householders, and the question was whether the consequence of this was that the lessee's name should be struck off the county list. The revising barrister decided that he had no right to a county vote. The court affirmed the decision of the barrister. C. v J.

Service of Notice of Claim on the Overseers of a District.

The parish of St. M. was divided into four districts, popularly, but improperly, called "townships," each district having an Overseer, who made out a separate list of voters. A Notice of Claim was directed "to the Overseers of the Township of S. S." Held sufficient, and that service upon one overseer was service upon all the overseers of the parish of St. M. Elliott and The Overseers of St. Mary Within. LUT. I. p. 573.

Service of Notice of Claim on Sunday.

If the 20th of July falls upon a Sunday, service on that day of a Notice of Claim is sufficient. Rawlins and The Overseers of West Derby. LUT. I. p. 373. B. & A. 599.

REGISTER OF VOTERS.

The signed lists delivered by the Clerk of the Peace to the Sheriff are the true "Register of Voters," and lists sold by the Clerk of the Peace, purporting to be copies of the register, are not necessarily copies "of the register in force." Therefore, where the name of an elector who had signed notices of objection did not appear upon the latter but was upon the former, such notices were good. Brumfitt and Bremner K. & G. p. 352.

NOTICE OF OBJECTION. Form of.

A notice in the following form is a sufficient notice to a person that his vote for the County would be objected to:—"Take notice, that I object to your name being retained on the list of voters for the parish of St. Thomas, New Sarum, in the Southern Division of the County of Wilts." Lambert and The Overseers of St. Thomas, New Sarum. LUT. II. p. 222.

Specification of List to which Objection refers.

Where in cities and boroughs the Overseers make out two lists of voters, a notice of objection to the Overseers must specify the particular list to which it refers, even when the name of the party objected to appears on one list only. Barton and Ashley. LUT. I. p. 304. B. & A. p. 518.

The note at the foot of the Form, No. 8, Schedule B, applies only where the Overseers make out two lists, and does not apply to Form, No. 9. (Forms, Nos. 8 & 9, p. 211.) Therefore, in the City of London, where the Overseers make out one list of voters and other lists are formed and published, it is not necessary to specify the list to which a notice of objection refers, either to the Overseers or to the party objected to. Wansey and Perkins (Quigley's case). LUT. I. p. 235. B. & A. p. 386.

Where the Overseers make out two lists, one of 10*l.* rated occupiers, the other of potwallers, a notice of objection in the following form was held sufficient:—"I object to your name being retained on the list of persons entitled to vote as householders in the election," &c. Allen and House. LUT. I. p. 257. B. & A. p. 415.

When a voter's name is on the 10*l.* rated occupiers' list only, in a city or borough, a notice of objection sufficiently specifies the list by the description, "On the list of persons entitled, under the Reform Act, to vote," &c. Huggett and Lewis. K. & G. p. 1.

Voter's description in Notice of Objection.

A county voter, whose name was inserted in the list for the parish of Pudsey, described his place of abode as of "Lidget Hill" only, and was so described in a notice of objection: Held, A good notice. Flint and Sharp. K. & G. p. 13.

Where in the body of the notice the voter's Surname and Christian names were substituted for the words "your name:" Held, that the notice was in substance according to the form required. Force and Floud. H. & P. vol. I. p. 56.

Date of Notice of Objection.

Notice of objection to the Overseers and to the party objected to, must state the year of our Lord. Beenlen and Hockin. LUT. I. p. 526.

Signature of Objector.

An original notice of objection must be signed by the objector himself; and so, likewise, must the duplicate, if the notice be served by post, under the 100 s. of the Registration Act. Toms and Cuming. LUT. I. p. 200. B. & A. p. 347.

To prove that the original duplicate notice sent by the post was signed by the hand of the objector, it is sufficient to shew that the stamped duplicate notice was so signed by him. Lewis and Roberts. K. & G. p. 402.

An objector, described upon the register as "William Nic*kless*," signed his notice of objection in his proper name, "William Nic*holas*"—Held, A sufficient notice, and that the description was such a misnomer as to be commonly understood. Hinton and Hinton. LUT. I. p. 259. B. & A. p. 421.

Notices of objection were signed by an objector with his usual signature, but the surname was so illegibly written, that an ordinary person unacquainted with the signature could not, by perusing it with ordinary diligence and skill, arrive at any reasonable conclusion what name it was intended to designate. By comparison of the notice, however, with the entry in the register it could be easily understood. Hallam's case. The same, where the post-office stamped duplicate only was produced. Aylan's case. Held that the signature was sufficient. Trotter and Walker. K. & G. p. 534.

Objector's description in Notice.

The place of abode of an objector, as described on the register, was "Cheltenham" only, while that given in his notice of objection was "398, High Street, Cheltenham," his true place of abode: Held, A sufficient notice. Pruen and Cox. LUT. I. p. 304. B. & A. p. 514.

A notice of objection was signed J. F. "of 5, Sherborne Street, on the list of voters for the parish of Cheltenham:" Held, That "5, Sherborne Street," in the notice, meant "5, Sherborne Street, Cheltenham," and was sufficient. Sheldon and Flatcher. LUT. II. p. 11.

It is sufficient if the place of abode, given by an objector in his notice, is the same as that given on the register, if it be his true place of abode. Gadsby and Warburton. LUT. I. p. 136. B. & A. p. 272.

A notice of objection, containing the true place of abode of the objector, though differing from that stated in the register, is a good notice. Knowles and Brooking. LUT. I. p. 461. B. & A. p. 755. And Wills and Adey. LUT. I. p. 481. B. & A. p. 782.

An objector, described upon the register as of "St. Woollas," gave his place of abode, in his notice, as "The Oaks,"—"on the register of voters for the parish of St. Woollas"—Held, That the notice and register could not be coupled to supply the true place of abode, and that the notice was therefore insufficient. Woollett and Davis. LUT. I. p. 607.

Where an objector has removed since registration, he must give his true place of abode in his notice of objection, and not that appearing on the register. Melbourne and Greenfield. K. & G. p. 261.

An objector is bound to give in his notice of objection, his true place of abode, if he have two bonâ fide places of abode he may give either; whether that given in a notice is the true place of abode is a question of fact. Courtis and Blight. K. & G. p. 475.

The place of abode of the objector was so written as to be partly illegible (as was also part of his signature), but by a reference to the entry in the register the place intended could be reasonably inferred. Held, a sufficient notice. Sedgwick and Trevor. K. & G. p. 544.

An objector, whose name appeared on the alphabetical list of Freemen of the city of Bristol, and described as "of the parish of Clifton," stated, in his notice of objection, that his name was "on the list of voters for the parish of Clifton:" Held, An insufficient notice. Tudball and The Town Clerk of Bristol. LUT. I. p. 7. B. & A. p. 8.

The register of voters for the borough of Lancaster is composed of four separate lists,—three of 10*l. householders*, and one a list of freemen. An objector, whose name appeared on the list of freemen, described himself as "on the list of voters for the borough of Lancaster:" Held, Insufficient, and that the defect was not such an "inaccurate description" as to come within 101st section. Edsworth and Farrer. LUT. I. p. 517.

An objector on the "list of freemen entitled to vote in the election of Members for the city of Carlisle," described himself, in his notice, as being "on the list of voters for the city" only. It was objected, that as there was also a list, called the Freemen's roll for the city, used for municipal purposes, the notice was insufficient. Held, That the notice sufficiently complied with the requirements of the statute. Feddon and Sawyers. LUT. II. p. 246.

In the borough of Bedford two lists are made out for the parish of St. Paul—"The £.10 List, or New Qualification List," and "The Reserved "Right List." An objector, whose name appeared on the £.10 List, described himself in a notice of objection as "on the list of voters for "the parish of St. Paul." Held to be sufficient, "as he claims to be on "the list of voters in respect of a parish qualification." Samuel and Hitchmough. K. & G. p. 522.

Where at Kidderminster there were separate lists with distinctive names and Overseers for distinct parts of the borough, and the objector described himself as "on the list of persons entitled to vote in the election of a member for the Borough of Kidderminster in respect of property occupied within the Parish of Kidderminster." Held, an invalid notice. Crowther and Bradney. H. & P. vol. 1. 63.

An objector described himself simply as "of Bony Cwryg," and the barrister held that the notice was bad on the face of it, and that it could not be made good by evidence or the fact that under the particular circumstance the notice gave sufficient information as to the objector's address. The Court held that they could not say that the notice was bad on the face of it, especially as it might be implied from the case that it gave sufficient information. J. v. B.

In a consolidated appeal from Lancashire, the question was raised whether, when objecting to a county vote, it must be stated in the notice, which was the list which it was objected to the same being on. The barrister held that this was not necessary, and he struck out the names objected to. The decision of the barrister confirmed. C. v J.

A name was inserted in the list of £.12 occupiers in respect of a house occupied in Derby Road, in the Liverpool district of Lancashire. The appellant gave him the following notice:—"I hereby give you notice that I object to your name being retained on the South-West Division of the County of Lancaster." On behalf of the claimant it was contended that the notice was bad because it did not set out the ground of objection. On the other side it was argued that it was only the old voters already upon the register who were entitled to a notice of the nature of the objection taken; but that the £.12 occupiers who were placed on the list under the act of 1867 were there in the nature of "claimants" only; and that as to them a general notice not stating the nature of the objection was sufficient. The barrister decided that the general notice was not sufficient, and he retained the name on the list. This was the decision now appealed against. The Lord Chief Justice said he was of opinion that the revising barrister was right in holding that the general notice was insufficient, inasmuch as the ground of objection was not specifically stated. By the Registration Act of 1865 persons on the register were entitled to have the objections against them specifically stated, and the only exception to this rule was in the case of persons described as "claimants." Looking at the general scope of the enactments upon this subject, it seemed to him that the appellant could not be considered to be a "claimant," and therefore he was entitled to have the objectionagainst him specifically stated. B. v. B.

Service of Notice of Objection.

A notice of objection to a county voter, addressed to "The Overseers of the Parish or Township of Bethersden," was duly received by post and published by the Overseers: Held, To be a good notice without naming the county according to the directions of the 101st section. Jones and Innons. K. & G. p. 21; and Goodsell and Innons. K. & G. p. 24.

Service of a notice of objection upon one of the Overseers who had not signed the list, is a sufficient service upon all the Overseers of the parish. Beenlen and Hockin. LUT. I. p. 526.

Service upon an Assistant Overseer, though he did not sign or take any part in making out the lists, is sufficient, if appointed to perform all the duties of an Overseer. Points and Attwood. LUT. II. p. 177.

If the Overseers publish the name of a person objected to against whom they had received a notice of objection, it must be assumed in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that the notice was received in due time. Goodsell and Innons. K. & G. p. 25.

An agent on behalf of an objector went to a voter's place of abode as described in the list, between nine and ten o'clock in the evening of the 25th of August, but being unsuccessful in his endeavours to make himself heard, he left the notice inside the door of the house. The Revising Barrister considered the service to be sufficient. Held, That the sufficiency of service of a notice is a question of fact for the Revising Barrister. Watson and Pitt. LUT. II. p. 73.

Post-Office service of Notice of Objection.

A notice of objection sent by the post under the provisions of the 100th section of the 6th Vic. cap. 18, must have an "address" on the face, and a "direction" on the back, and the "duplicate" must correspond with the original in every particular required. Birch and Edwards. LUT. II. p. 37.

But where a notice and duplicate to a borough voter had no address on the face, but was directed on the back, it was held to be a sufficient notice. Barclay and Parrott. K. & G. p. 59.

A notice of objection was delivered open and in duplicate to a managing clerk at the post-office, and not to the post-master: Held, Sufficient service, and that a clerk to the post-master might execute all the duties of the post master under the 100th section. Allan and Waterhouse. LUT. I. p. 92. Cooper and Coates. B. & A. p. 229.

If the post-master chose to receive a notice of objection after the hours appointed by the regulations of the post-office, and to go through the rest of the forms required, service of such notice is not thereby invalidated. Hannaford and Whiteway. K. & G. p. 65.

Service of a notice of objection, posted on the 24th of August, and which in due course of post should have been delivered on the 25th, is not informal by reason of the notice not having been delivered until the 27th. Also, that the 100th section is applicable both to notices to Overseers and to parties. Bishop and Helps. LUT. I. p. 353. B. & A. p. 572.

The production of a properly stamped duplicate notice of claim to the Overseers is sufficient evidence of posting in time, and in this respect there is not any distinction to be taken between a notice of objection and a notice of claim. Bayley and the Overseers of Nantwich. LUT. I. p. 363. B. & A. p. 642.

Notices of objection to the Overseers were proved to have been enclosed in an envelope addressed "to the Overseers" of the proper parish, and sent by ordinary post according to s. 101 Registration Act, and were duly received and published. Held to be a sufficient proof of service by post, and that the service of notices by post upon Overseers need not be according to the statutory provisions of s. 100. Smith and Huggett, and Smith and James. K. & G. p. 434.

The production of a duplicate notice of objection, bearing the post-office dated stamp, is in all cases of notices served through the post, conclusive proof of the service on the voter in the ordinary course of post. Hornsby and Robson. K. & G. p. 66.

A notice of objection was posted on Saturday, the 23rd of August, and delivered in due course of post, on Sunday, the 24th: Held, Sufficient service, and not within the statute 29 Charles II., cap. 7. Colville and Lewis. LUT. 1, p. 380. B. & A. p. 608.

Production of the stamped duplicate notice of objection by the objector, and not "by the party who posted such notice," is sufficient proof; and that, as the whole faith and credit is attached to the stamp of the post-master, the production of the duplicate may be either by the objector, or by an agent who posted the notice. Cuming and Toms. LUT. I. p. 151. B. & A. p. 229.

DESCENT

ROYAL FAMILY OF GREAT BRITAIN.

THE illustrious HOUSE of BRUNSWICK traces its origin to a very remote antiquity, in the several lines of Este, of the Guelphs, of Billing, and Whitekind the Great; all of which became united in the person of Henry Leo.

The descent of the BRITISH LINE, both through Henry I. and James I., ascends higher than almost any line in Europe, as it may be traced back to about 560.

John, the second son of Henry II., was crowned in 1199, and died in 1216; he was succeeded by his son Henry III., who died in 1272, and was succeeded by his son Edward I., who died in 1307. At his death Edward II. ascended the throne, and was succeeded by Edward III., whose eldest son Edward the Black Prince, dying before his father, in 1376, he was succeeded in 1377, by his grandson, Richard II., who was deposed in 1399, and succeeded by his cousin Henry IV., who died in 1412, when his son, Henry V., ascended the throne, and died in 1422. That monarch was succeeded by his son, Henry VI., who was deposed in 1461, when Edward IV. (descended from the third son of Edward III.) mounted the throne, and died in 1483. The short usurpation of Richard III. was followed by the accession of Henry VII., descended from John of Gaunt, Duke of Lancaster, fourth son of Edward III. On his marriage with Elizabeth, daughter of Edward IV., the family was again united. Henry VII. dying in 1509, left three children, a son and two daughters, the youngest of whom married James IV. King of Scotland, who was, in 1513, succeeded in that kingdom by his son James V., whose daughter, Mary, was mother of James VI. of Scotland, and the first of that name in England; his daughter, Sophia, married Frederick, King of Bohemia, by whom she had a daughter, Elizabeth, married to Ernestus, Elector of Hanover, Representative of the Houses of Brunswick, Hanover, Lunenburg, Wolfenbuttel, Zell, &c., by whom she had a son, George, who, according to the provisions made by Parliament, for the succession of the Crown in the Protestant line, on the death of Queen Anne, August 1, 1714, ascended the throne of Great Britain.

His Majesty married, Nov. 21, 1682, Sophia-Dorothy, only child of his uncle, George-William, Duke of Zell; by whom he had issue George-Augustus, his successor; and Sophia-Dorothy, who married, Nov. 28, 1706, Frederick-William, afterwards King of Prussia. His Majesty died at Osnaburg, June 11, 1727, on his journey to his German dominions, in the 68th year of his age, and the 13th of his British reign.

GEORGE II., born Oct. 30, 1683; ascended the throne on the death of his father; was crowned Oct. 11, 1727; and died at his palace at Kensington, Oct. 25, 1760, in the 77th year of his age, and the thirty-fourth of his reign.
